The Naked Face Sidney Sheldon, 2010-06-22 Judd Stevens is a psychoanalyst faced with the most critical case of his life If he does not penetrate the mind of a murderer he will find himself arrested for murder or murdered himself Two people closely involved with Dr Stevens have already been killed Is one of the doctor s patients responsible Someone overwhelmed by his problems A neurotic driven by compulsion A madman Before the murderer strikes again Judd must strip away the mask of innocence the criminal wears uncover the inner emotions fears and desires to expose The Naked Face Sidney Sheldon, 1982 Judd Stevens is a psychoanalyst faced with the most critical case of his life If he does not penetrate the mind of a murderer he will find himself arrested for murder or murdered himself Two people closely involved with Dr Stevens have already been killed Is one of the doctor s patients responsible Someone overwhelmed by his problems A neurotic driven by compulsion A madman Before the murderer strikes again Judd must strip away the mask of innocence the criminal wears uncover the inner emotions fears and desires to expose The Hidden Face of Eve Nawal El Saadawi, Nawāl

Sa'dāwī, 2007-06 This powerful account of the oppression of women in the Muslim world remains as shocking today as when it was first published more than a quarter of a century ago Nawal El Saadawi writes out of a powerful sense of the violence and injustice which permeated her society Her experiences working as a doctor in villages around Egypt witnessing prostitution honour killings and sexual abuse including female circumcision drove her to give voice to this suffering She goes on explore the causes of the situation through a discussion of the historical role of Arab women in religion and literature Saadawi argues that the veil polygamy and legal inequality are incompatible with the essence of Islam or any human faith This edition complete with a new foreword lays claim to The Hidden Face of Eve s status as a classic of modern Arab writing

The Naked Face Chong Lin Oon, Boo-chai Khoo, 2003 Saving Face Aimee Byrd, 2025-04-08 May the Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you We have received the blessing countless times but what does it mean for the Lord to shine his face upon us in a time when many Christians are disillusioned with their faith wrestling to reframe their relationship with God and with the church But another inner struggle often lurks unacknowledged unfronted the struggle to rediscover one s own identity and relearn one s own story Aimee Byrd finds this experience best described in the metaphor of finding one s face Through this beautiful meditation Byrd shows how the church has been defaced by its own spiritual abuses by its loss of imagination and wonder by empty words without actions The author of Recovering from Biblical Manhood and Womanhood has often asked hard questions of the church In Saving Face she develops her reflections still further daring to wonder what if the crises in the church today are not because we don t have the right doctrine but because we have lost sight of something much deeper What if we are spending all our time pointing fingers at those we consider wrong when we should be looking in a mirror instead What if God has something to reveal to us there Perhaps we should be seeking the presence of Christ in our own reflections just as we look for him in the faces of the others Creatively weaving together stories memories journal entries and Scripture meditations on the divine face Aimee invites the church to seek the face of Christ by recovering the values of beauty contemplation and deep relationship

Origins of Modern Japanese Literature Kōjin Karatani, 1993 Karatani Kojin is one of Japan's leading critics In his work as a theoretician he has described Modernity as have few others he has re-evaluated the literature of the entire Meiji period and beyond As one critic has said Karatani's thought has had a profound effect on the way we formulate the questions we ask about modern literature and culture his argument is compelling moving even and in the end the reader comes away with a different understanding not only of modern Japanese literature but of modern Japan itself Among the many authors discussed are Soseki Natsume Doppo Kunikida Katai Tayama and Shoyo Tsubouchi

Signs and Cities Madhu Dubey, 2007-11-01 Signs and Cities is the first book to consider what it means to speak of a postmodern moment in African American literature Dubey argues that for African American studies postmodernity best names a period beginning in the early 1970s marked by acute disenchantment with the promises of urban modernity and of print literacy Dubey shows how black novelists from the last three decades have reconsidered the modern urban legacy and thus articulated a distinctly African American strain of postmodernism She argues that novelists such as Octavia Butler Samuel Delany Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor Ishmael Reed Sapphire and John Edgar Wideman probe the disillusionment of urban modernity through repeated recourse to tropes of the book and scenes of reading and writing Ultimately she demonstrates that these writers view the book with profound ambivalence construing it as an urban medium that cannot recapture the face to face communities assumed by oral and folk forms of expression
