The Names We Go By:

Several discourses ... by B. W. ... examined and correct by his own notes; and published by J. Jeffery Benjamin WHICHCOT,1703 Not In Their Name Holly Lawford-Smith,2019-02-14 There are many actions that we attribute at least colloquially to states Given their size and influence states are able to inflict harm far beyond the reach of a single individual But there is a great deal of unclarity about exactly who is implicated in that kind of harm and how we should think about responsibility for it It is a commonplace assumption that democratic publics both authorize and have control over what their states do that their states act in their name and on their behalf In Not In Their Name Holly Lawford Smith approaches these questions from the perspective of social ontology asking whether the state is a collective agent and whether ordinary citizens are members of that agent If it is and they are there s a clear case for democratic collective culpability She explores alternative conceptions of the state and of membership in the state alternative conceptions of collective agency applied to the state the normative implications of membership in the state and both culpability from the inside and responsibility from the outside for what the state does Ultimately Lawford Smith argues for the exculpation of ordinary citizens and the inculpation of those working in public services The Works of ...
