The Stone Carvers:

The Stone Carvers Jane Urquhart, 2010-08-24 Set in the first half of the twentieth century but reaching back to Bavaria in the late nineteenth century The Stone Carvers weaves together the story of ordinary lives marked by obsession and transformed by art At the centre of a large cast of characters is Klara Becker the granddaughter of a master carver a seamstress haunted by a love affair cut short by the First World War and by the frequent disappearances of her brother Tilman afflicted since childhood with wanderlust From Ontario they are swept into a colossal venture in Europe years later as Toronto sculptor Walter Allward's ambitious plans begin to take shape for a war memorial at Vimy France Spanning three decades and moving from a German settled village in Ontario to Europe after the Great War The Stone Carvers follows the paths of immigrants labourers and dreamers Vivid dark redemptive this is novel of great beauty and power The Stone Carvers Marjorie Hunt, 1999 The lives and careers of two master stone cutters Italian Americans Roger Morigi and Vincent Palumbo are explored here in a celebration of an arcane trade and craft The Stone Carvers Jane Urquhart, 2003-11-25 In 1867 a good natured Bavarian priest is sent by God and mad King Ludwig to the wilds of North America Soon the backwoods are transformed into a parish and the settlers into a congregation and Joseph Becker a woodcarver meets his future wife Several decades later Joseph Becker teaches his astounding carving skills to his grandchildren One of them Klara shows exceptional talent and has a surfeit of what the local nuns call a fondness for men's work Untamed she falls in love with an Irish boy Eamon O Sullivan only to have him leave to fight in the Great War Jane Urquhart Laura Ferri, 2005 Jane Urquhart has published three books of poetry a collection of short stories and five best selling novels Her fiction has won many honours including Canada's 1997 Governor General's Award and France's prestigious Prix du Meilleur Livre Etranger She lives in Ontario Canada The essays in this book investigate Jane Urquhart's interweaving of historical events myth folk tales journeys and landscape with her acute perceptions of memory and self transformation The many critical voices in this collection invite readers to consider Jane Urquhart's very special vision of the world one made up of migrations dreams spiritual quests and prophecy Along with an interview with Urquhart recorded by the editor there are essays by David Staines Allan Hepburn T F Rigelhof Mary Conde Caterina Ricciardi John Moss Marlene Goldman and Anne Compton The Stone Carvers, 1985 Catching the Torch Neta Gordon, 2014-03-25 Catching the Torch examines contemporary novels and plays written about Canada's participation in World War I Exploring such works as Jane Urquhart's The Underpainter and The Stone Carvers Jack Hodgins's Broken Ground Kevin Kerr's Unity 1918 Stephen Massicotte's Mary's Wedding and Frances Itani's Deafening the book considers how writers have dealt with the compelling myth that the Canadian nation was born in the trenches of the Great War In contrast to British and European remembrances of WWI which tend to regard it as a cataclysmic destroyer of innocence or Australian myths that promote an ideal of outsize masculinity physical bravery and white superiority contemporary Canadian texts conjure up notions of distinctively Canadian values tolerance of ethnic difference the ability to do one's duty without complaint or arrogance and the inclination to show moral as well as physical courage Paradoxically Canadians are shown to decry the horrors of war while making use of its productive cultural effects Through a close analysis of the way sacrifice service and the commemoration of war are represented in these literary works Catching the Torch argues that iterations of a secure mythic notion of national identity one that is articulated via the representation of straightforward civic and military participation work to counter current anxieties about the stability of the nation state in particular anxieties about the failure of the ideal of a national character The Stone Cutters' Journal, 1920

Living Out Loud Samuel Wells, 2014-08-08 Is living an ethical life primarily about following rules or about the kind of people we are The authors of this book argue that faithful Christian discipleship is more to do with developing good habits than following rules And forming good habits requires participation in communities that transform us and those around us into the kind of people who can live God's way in God's world The book introduces key approaches to Christian ethics through a conversation between theologians church leaders and Christians equipping the church for action The main conversation partners are Stanley Hauerwas and Sam Wells who present some of their key ideas in the essays and then enter into fascinating conversations with Jo Bailey Wells Luke Bretherton Steve Chalke Shane Clairbourne and Russ Rook They explore how we can live out loud as a faithful witness of Christ in our contemporary context Humanities, 1985 The Unfinished Vidya Dehejia, Peter Rockwell, 2016 The sheer number of unfinished stone monuments in India is staggering and examples appear at some of India's most famous and well studied sites that include rock cut Ellora Ajanta and Mamallapuram Unfinished work also appears on built temples celebrated for the intricacy of their sculpted decoration such as those in Hoysala kingdom or in Orissa This detailed study provides an overall coverage of India's unfinished work while addressing a range of issues related to stone carving by examining a select number of monuments at specific sites Instead of focusing on a site in its entirety the study here focuses on specific issues of consequence in the context of unfinished work as they gain an added weight and significance through discovery of their repetitive occurrence at site after site At the heart of this book are the many varieties of unfinished stone carving that merit close observation to see what is there and what is not and to appreciate that all the finished work has been through these various stages of being unfinished before reaching completion
