The Struggle For Humanity:

Humanity ,1917 The Struggle for Humanity Marjorie Hope,James Young,1977 Human Rights and State Security Anja Jetschke,2011-06-06 In recent years influential studies have shown that the activities of human rights organizations are central in convincing violating governments to improve their practices Yet some governments continue to get away with human rights violations despite mobilizations against them In Human Rights and State Security Indonesia and the Philippines Anja Jetschke considers the impact of transnational human rights advocacy on the process of human rights reform and democratization in two countries that have been successful in resisting international human rights pressure Jetschke details the effects of campaigns waged by international and domestic NGOs foreign governments local opposition leaders and international organizations She argues that the literature on transnational advocacy overlooks the ability of governments to justify and excuse human rights violations in their public dialogue with human rights organizations Describing efforts of international and domestic human rights advocates to protect the rights of various groups the case studies in this book suggest that governments successfully block or evade pressures if they invoke threats to state security Jetschke finds that state security puts into play a set of powerful international norms related to sovereignty a state s right to territorial integrity the secular organization of the state or a government s lack of control over the means of organized violence If governments frame persuasive arguments around these norms they can effectively mobilize competing domestic and international groups and trump human rights advocacy Human Rights and State Security shows that the content and arguments on behalf of human rights matter and provide opportunities for both governments and civil society organizations to advance their agendas The Ground and Goal of Human Life Charles Gray Shaw,1919 Asia's Struggle for Full Humanity Virginia Fabella,1980 The Humanity of God John Wright Buckham,1928 Educating for Human Dignity Betty Reardon,1995 GRADES TEN TO TWELVE Human Life Sherwood Sweet Knight,1910 George Washington: The human being & the hero, 1732-1762 Rupert Hughes,1926 Political Views and Ideas R.
