Slavery and Emancipation in Islamic East Africa Elisabeth McMahon, 2013-04-30 Examining the process of abolition on the island of Pemba off the East African coast in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries this book demonstrates the links between emancipation and the redefinition of honour among all classes of people on the island By examining the social vulnerability of ex slaves and the former slave owning elite caused by the abolition order of 1897 this study argues that moments of resistance on Pemba reflected an effort to mitigate vulnerability rather than resist the hegemonic power of elites or the colonial state As the meaning of the Swahili word heshima shifted from honour to respectability individuals reputations came under scrutiny and the Islamic kadhi and colonial courts became an integral location for interrogating reputations in the community This study illustrates the ways in which former slaves used piety reputation gossip education kinship and witchcraft to negotiate the gap between emancipation and local notions of belonging

Tax Agreements United Nations. Department of Economic Affairs. Fiscal Division, 1954 Ivory and Slaves in East Central Africa Edward A. Alpers, 2023-11-10 Professor Shepperson says of this regional economic history of East Central Africa that it is a refreshing combination of a scholarly survey of a relatively new field of African history and of a contribution to an important controversy on African underdevelopment Alpers has written a history of the penetration and changing character of international trade in East Central Africa from the fifteenth to the later nineteenth century His study focuses on a vast and little known region that includes southern Tanzania northern Mozambique and Malawi with extension north along the Swahili coast and west as far as the Lunda state of the Mwata Kazembe He examines both the competition between traders and their internal impact on the various societies of East Central Africa Alpers main concern is to demonstrate that the historical roots of underdevelopment in the area are to be found in the system of international trade which was initiated by Arabs in the fifteenth century seized and extended by the Portuguese in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries dominated by a complex mixture of Indian Arab and Western capitalisms in the nineteenth century Thus this readable and original book places East African trading systems within the larger Western Indian Ocean system and in the world capitalist system This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1975 Zanzibar, Its History and Its People William Harold Ingrams, 1934 Zanzibar, Its History and Its People William Harold Ingrams, 1931 World Regions in Global Context Sallie A. Marston, Paul L.

Knox, Diana M. Liverman, 2002 This explicitly global approach to world regional geography emphasizes global connections and the stories behind the maps and offers lively discussions of how these forces and processes play themselves out in individual places The authors make the most current and powerful ideas in geography accessible to the introductory student Emphasis on core regions key cities and distinctive landscapes accommodates a global connections approach as well as the course s traditional focus on places at the local scale Index Islamicus ,1997 Statutory Rules and Orders Other Than Those of a Local, Personal, Or Temporary Character Great Britain,1901 The Statutory Rules and Orders Revised Great Britain,1904 The London Gazette ,1897 Echoing Silence and Narcissistic Violence Kimberly Pfeifer,2000
