Hill of Squandered Valour Ron Lock,2011-10-25 Good focused context pinpoints the historical significance of the single bloodiest episode in the Second Boer War from a Zulu warfare expert FGS Forum Spion Kop just northeast of Ladysmith South Africa was the largest hill in the region being over 1 400 feet high and it lay almost exactly at the center of the Boer line If the British could capture this position and bring artillery to the hill they would then command the flanks of the surrounding Boer positions On the night of January 23 1900 a large British force under Maj Gen Edward Woodgate was dispatched to secure the height with Lt Col Alexander Thorneycroft selected to lead the initial assault However the Boers refused to give up the position and a bitter two days of fighting ensued Ron Lock esteemed author of many Zulu warfare histories brings to life this bitter and previously overlooked campaign in vivid and complete detail with supporting sources including then journalist Winston Churchill s battle report as well as many previously unpublished illustrations and six newly commissioned maps His account will be valuable to both historians and strategists wanting to better understand this difficult and devastating conflict An excellent read well researched and incisive in his handling of the various protagonists involved He succeeds in offering a fresh perspective Al Venter author of Barrel of a Gun Spion Kop Harold George Castle,Edward
