The Subaltern Speak Michael W. Apple, Kristen L. Buras, 2013-01-11 The question of whose perspective experience and history is privileged in educational institutions has shaped curriculum debates for decades In this insightful collection Michael W Apple and Kristen L Buras interrogate the notion that some knowledge is worth more than others The Subaltern Speak combines an analysis of the ways in which various forms of power now operate with a specific focus on spaces in which subaltern groups act to reassert their own perceived identities cultures and histories Empowering Subaltern Voices Through Education Urmee Chakma, 2023-02-28 Based on a four year long empirical study this book employs contemporary theories from the Global South to investigate the role of education in the experience of migration and settlement of the Chakma people of Bangladesh in the city of Melbourne Australia Exploring the migration opportunities taken up by the Chakma and their efforts to retain promote and enrich their ethnic identity in Australia the book critically examines the importance of education for ethnic linguistic and religious minorities and the extent to which education helped the diasporic community in achieving a better and more secure life It also positions education as a tool to help revive maintain and enrich the importance of culture and tradition both in the home country and in the place of settlement and offers a theorisation of how the self directed pursuit of education can create opportunities for minority peoples to advocate human rights Indigenous recognition and criticise a state s failure to provide safety and security This book will be of interest to academics and postgraduate students researching in the fields of education diaspora studies Indigenous studies and migration studies Index Analysis of the Federal Statutes (general Permanent Law) 1789-1873 [1873-1907] ... United States, George Winfield Scott, Middleton Goldsmith Beaman, 1911 Without History Jose Rabasa, 2010-06-27 On December 22 1997 forty five unarmed members of the indigenous organization Las Abejas The Bees were massacred during a prayer meeting in the village of Acteal Mexico The members of Las Abejas who are pacifists pledged their support to the Zapatista Army of National Liberation a primarily indigenous group that has declared war on the state of Mexico The massacre has been attributed to a paramilitary group composed of ordinary citizens acting on their own although eyewitnesses claim the attack was planned ahead of time and that the Mexican government was complicit In Without History Jose Rabasa contrasts indigenous accounts of the Acteal massacre and other events with state attempts to frame the past control subaltern populations and legitimize its own authority Rabasa offers new interpretations of the meaning of history from indigenous perspectives and develops the concept of a communal temporality that is not limited by time but rather exists within the individual community and culture as a living knowledge that links both past and present Due to a disconnection between indigenous and state accounts as well as the lack of archival materials many of which were destroyed by missionaries the indigenous remain outside of or without history according to most of Western discourse The continued practice of redefining native history perpetuates the subalternization of that history and maintains the specter of fabrication over reality Rabasa recalls the works of Marx Lenin and Gramsci as well as contemporary south Asian subalternists Ranajit Guha and Dipesh Chakrabarty among others He incorporates their conceptions of communality insurgency resistance to hegemonic governments and the creation of autonomous spaces as strategies employed by indigenous groups around the globe but goes further in defining these strategies as millennial and deeply rooted in Mesoamerican antiquity For Rabasa these methods and the continuum of ancient indigenous consciousness are evidenced in present day events such as the Zapatista insurrection
