Secularism and the Crisis of Minority Identity in Postcolonial Literature Roger McNamara, 2018-06-06 Secularism and the Crisis of Minority Identity in Postcolonial Literature examines how writers from religious and ethnic minority communities Anglo Indians Burghers Dalits Muslims and Parsis in India and Sri Lanka engage secularism through novels short stories and autobiographies Given the rise of Hindu nationalism in India and Sinhala Buddhist nationalism in Sri Lanka it would seem obvious that minorities would rally around secularism the separation of church and state However this book argues that the relationship between minorities and secularism is extremely ambivalent On the one hand it shows how writers belonging to oppressed communities can deploy secularism as a mode of critique secular criticism to challenge the ideologies of dominant groups the nation upper castes and religious hierarchies On the other hand it examines how these writers reveal that other aspects of secularism secularization and secular time are responsible for creating essentialized identities that have not only exacerbated relationships between majorities and minorities and between minority groups but have also created tension within minority groups themselves Turing to aesthetics and religious faith these writers attempt to undermine secular social and cultural structures that are responsible for this crisis of minority identity
