

Sidney's Arcadia and the Structure of King Lear.

The Arcadia of Philip Sidney is a work of fiction, a story of a young prince, a young princess, and a young king, who are all of noble birth and of noble mind. The story is set in a remote and beautiful part of the world, a place where the laws of nature and the laws of men are in perfect harmony. The story is a tale of love, of duty, and of honor. It is a tale that has inspired many other writers, and it is a tale that is still as true and as beautiful as ever.
