State In Question Transformations Of The Australian State:

School Effectiveness for Whom? Roger Slee, Sally Tomlinson, Gaby Weiner, 2003-05-20 School effectiveness research together with what is now described as the school improvement movement Barber 1996 has captured both the Conservative and New Labour imaginations as a basis for educational planning and policy making in the UK Internationally school effectiveness enjoys and expanding and enthusiastic audience This book provides a critique of this research genre particularly in the light of the recent calls for teaching to go back to the basics The editors argue that this school effectiveness research is simplistic in its analysis of educational problems Far from getting to the bottom of the problem of failing students and schools they argue these movements are merely scratching at the surface of the problems and coming up with notions for superficial improvements

Politics, Policies and Pedagogies in Education Bob Lingard, 2013-07-24 In the World Library of Educationalists international experts compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces of work extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field Bob Lingard has spent the last 30 years researching and writing in universities in Australia England and Scotland about changing education policy issues His work is written from a sociological perspective and with a commitment to social justice He is the co editor and co author of 17 books and more than 100 journal articles and book chapters In Politics Policies and Pedagogies in Education Bob Lingard provides critical sociological engagement with the politics of education The focus is education policy and the impact of globalization including epistemological and methodological issues necessary for researching education policy today Topics analyzed include educational restructuring new accountabilities and testing mediatization of education policy policy as numbers the global policy field and policy borrowing pedagogies Lingard also considers the nature of educational research today He has selected 12 of his key writings and in a critical introduction situates and contextualizes the work against key developments in the field and in the changing world

South Australia: State of Transformation John Spoehr, 2018-11-14 South Australia and the world is entering a time of transformational change social economic industrial and environmental As a new government takes the reins it has the power to shape the future of our state and its citizens at a crucial moment The automotive industry has closed but maritime shipbuilding projects are booming Automation and artificial intelligence technologies are on the rise and with them both fears of jobs lost and the promise of increased productivity and wellbeing Which way will we go In this insightful collection of essays some of South Australia s leading policy thinkers consider our future in the context of jobs our economy and its drivers industrial relations law and order the environment education health including ageing and aged care and more
