Stay With Me Lella:

Stay with Me, Lella Marisa Labozzetta, 1999 Johnny and Carla DiGiacomo are the hub of a big extended in many ways conventional Italian American family But less than conventional choice made early in their marriage to take in the orphaned daughter of distant relations will test their notions of love and loyalty as well as the sexual boundaries within which families exist Told with earthy humor Stay With Me Lella is about the arrangements and rearrangements Italian Americans coped with in the years after World War II as they began to make their way into the mainstream Marisa Labozzetta lives with her husband and three children in Northampton Massachusetts
