The Architecture of Influence Amanda Reeser Lawrence, 2023-11-21 How do we create the new from the old The Architecture of Influence explores this fundamental question by analyzing a broad swath of twentieth century architectural works including some of the best known examples of the architectural canon modern and postmodern through the lens of influence The book serves as both a critique of the discipline's long standing focus on genius and a celebration of the creative act of revisioning and reimagining the past It argues that all works of architecture not only depend on the past but necessarily alter rewrite and reposition the traditions and ideas to which they refer Organized into seven chapters

Replicas Copies Compilations Generalizations Revivals Emulations and Self Repetitions the book redefines influence as an active process through which the past is defined recalled and subsequently redefined within twentieth century architecture

English Architecture as Source Material Aymar Embury,1929 Architecture and the Public World Kenneth

Frampton,2024-01-25 This book brings together Kenneth Frampton s essays from the 1960s to today which epitomize his reflections on the historical theoretical entanglements of architecture with place the public realm cultural identity urban landscape and environment and the political question of the predicament of architecture in the new Millennium The essays explore Frampton s contention that architecture s imperative is to assume a significant responsibility for the edification and stewardship of the Arendtian public world One of the most theoretically sophisticated and politically committed architectural thinkers Frampton s work breaks emphatically with the limits and norms of much contemporary practice and restores a sense of richness and social consequence of architecture s unfinished project while offering abiding lessons not only for architecture but for social cultural and design criticism alike

Architecture and

Globalisation in the Persian Gulf Region Nasser Golzari,2016-04-15 This is the first book ever to examine the architecture and urbanism of the Persian Gulf as a complete entity dealing equally with conditions on the eastern Iranian shoreline as in Arabic countries on the western side By inviting a range of architects and scholars to write about historical and contemporary influences on 14 cities along both Gulf coastlines the book traces the changes in architecture and human settlement in relation to environmental factors and particularity of place It provides an innovative contribution to the study of architecture and globalisation through a detailed investigation of this particular region investigating how buildings and cities are being shaped as a result A set of thematic essays at the end offer important insights into issues of globalisation urbanism and environmental design drawing from the experience of the Persian Gulf The outcome is a unique record of the Gulf in the early 21st century at a point when global capitalism is making major inroads and yet questions of architectural design climate change ecological sustainability cultural identity and so called Facebook Democracy are likewise shaking up the Middle Eastern region The book thus offers a fresh reading of the architecture and urbanism of a fascinating and often contradictory region while also showing how globalisation can be analysed in a more engaged and integrated manner
