The Cattle Killing:

The Cattle Killing John Edgar Wideman, 1996 A surrealistic novel on the black experience The action is in the form of vignettes and ranges from cattle killing by the Xhosa in Africa believing this will drive the whites away to a black bishop in Philadelphia taking his flock out of the white man's church

The Prophecy of the Cattle Killing, 2006* Comic book about Nongqawuse the controversial Xhosa prophetess blamed for the cattle killings of the 1850s

The Dead Will Arise J. B. Peires, 1989-09-22 Anyone who thinks that South Africa's problems began with the Afrikaners and apartheid should read this book Richard Dowden The Independent should remain the last word for the foreseeable future Choice Peires is the premier historian of the Xhosa people He speaks the language knows the terrain has collected oral traditions and has made an exhaustive study of the documented sources The result is a fascinating and authoritative account of this astonishing catastrophe The Dead Will Arise is fine scholarship and a good read The Washington Post Book World Peires has done a splendid job combining a narrative of epic tragic sweep with a deep grasp of the Xhosa language and society this is a powerfully wrought work one of the best in recent years on a precolonial South African people African Studies Review The Dead Will Arise is remarkable for its clarity and accessibility It is bold imaginative challenge to an orthodoxy which has persisted for one hundred and thirty years The sophistication and scope of its analysis and its breath taking literary style qualify The Dead Will Arise for the accolade brilliant International Journal of African Historical Studies gripping reading It is now one hundred and thirty years since the tragic events of the Xhosa Cattle Killing and yet this book is the very first thoroughly researched and authoritative account ever to be written on the subject Journal of Religion in Africa One of the great strengths of this study is the rich biographical material that Peires provides on the various personalities involved in the incident American Historical Review Drawing on private letters spy reports oral traditions and obscure Xhosa texts Peires explains for the first time the motivations which drove 100 000 Xhosa to kill their cattle destroy their crops and slowly starve to death an extraordinary event that has defied historical explanation for over 130 years

The Dead Will Arise Jeffrey B. Peires, 2003 The story of Nongqawuse the young girl whose fantastic promise of the resurrection lured almost an entire people to death by starvation is one of the most misunderstood of central events in South African history

The House of Tshatshu Anne Kelk Mager, Phiko Jeffrey Velelo, 2018-08-30 In rural South Africa today there are signs that chieftaincies are resurging after having been disbanded in colonial times Among these is the amaTshatshu of the Eastern Cape which was dis established in 1852 by the British and recognised once more under the democratic ANC dispensation in 2003 Bawana leader of the amaTshatshu was the first Thembu chief to cross the Kei River in the mid 1820s to open up the northeastern frontier of the Cape Colony His successors and followers fought the British in the frontier wars but were defeated In tracing his history and that of his descendants this book explores the meaning of chieftainship in South Africa at the time of colonial conquest under apartheid s bantustans and now post apartheid It illustrates not only the story of a beleaguered and dispossessed people but also the ways in which power is constructed In addition it is about gender and land about belonging identity and naming The book unsettles accounts of chiefly authority unpacks conflicts between royal families municipalities and government departments and explores the impasse created by these quarrels It retrieves evidence that the colonial state sought to obliterate and draws the disempowered back into the process of making history The authors are both closely associated with the land and the people of the amaTshatshu One is a historian who grew up on their land and the other is counsellor to the chief As such they bring their knowledge and respective skills to bear in this book The collaboration of a black and a white author sets up a creative tension which animates the text and is a powerful element of the book
