Theology Today:

Theology Today Patrick D. Miller, 2006-01-01 In this collection of his essays from the popular and respected journal Theology Today longtime editor Patrick D Miller offers insights into the basic human condition His reflections range from popular culture the popularity of Seinfeld to political matters the proper public role for the Ten Commandments to the sublime the connection between poetry and faith The wit and wisdom of this internationally respected biblical scholar come through clearly in this collection

Newman, Canon Law, & Development David P. Long, 2024-10-25 John Henry Newman is well known as a theologian philosopher historian writer University rector and poet but can he also be associated with the field of canon law When Newman first proposed the possibility of doctrinal development as proof that the Catholic faith was free from corruption and error he claimed the Church is declared to be the great and special support of the Truth her various functionaries are said to be means towards the settlement of diversities and of uncertainty of doctrine and securing unity of faith For Newman these various functionaries included not only apostles prophets evangelists and pastors but also theologians and as is argued in this work canon lawyers While Newman and doctrinal development have become well explored topics in the field of theology there has been little scholarship on how Newman's thoughts on doctrinal development can influence current canon law and Church governance David Long addresses that lacuna by offering a systematic analysis of Newman's concept of development within current canonical practice It starts by tracing Newman's notions of personal judgment public discussion and episcopal moderation followed by a presentation of the current canonical understanding of the theologian and finally an application of the connection between Newman's theory on development and present canonical legislation as it involves the role of the theologian By undertaking such an application and by creating a model for discussion that preserves both development and Tradition this work humbly proposes a valuable model for understanding the theologian's contribution within the life of the contemporary Church in ways not previously explored

Living Countertestimony Walter Brueggemann, 2012-10-11 This volume invites readers to get up close and personal with one of the most respected and beloved writers of the last four decades Carolyn J Sharp has transcribed numerous table conversations between Walter Brueggemann and his colleagues and former students in addition to several of his addresses and sermons from both academic and congregational settings The result is the essential Brueggemann readers will learn about his views on scholarship faith and the church get insights into his contagious charisma grace and charity and appreciate the candid reflections on the fears uncertainties and difficulties he faced over the course of his career Anyone interested in Brueggemann's work and thoughts will be gifted with thought provoking inspirational reading from within these pages

Doing Theology Today Schubert M. Ogden, 2006-07-01 Here is an essential handbook for all those who would do theology today written by one of America's most distinguished theologians The book is divided into four parts Theology of Theology which extends deepens and renders more persuasive the author's lines of thought on theological prolegomena Theology and Christology which argues that to do theology today one must be concerned above all with the fundamental questions of God and Jesus Theology of Religions which implies that to do theology today is to do it in a truly global context in the presence of the plurality of ways of being human including those represented by non-Christian religions Theology in Conversation which claims that to do theology today is to enter into close and sustained conversation with others who either are or have been engaged in the same task of critical reflection

The Sense of the Faith in History John J. Burkhard, 2022-02-05 2023 Catholic Media Association Second Place Award Theology History of Theology Church Fathers and Mothers While taught by Vatican II the sense of the faith sensus fidei has had little official impact in the Catholic Church What would the church look like if it took this conciliar teaching to heart To address this neglect John Burkhard locates the historical roots of the teaching and its emergence at Vatican II It attempts to better understand the sense of the faith in the light of other fundamental teachings of the council and challenges the hierarchical church to invite all the faithful to rightfully participate in the prophetic ministry of the whole church closely allied with Pope Francis's call for a more synodal church

The Vocation of Theology Today Tom Greggs, Rachel Muers, Simeon Zahl, 2013-02-08 What is the task of theology in a complex religious and secular world What are theologians called to contribute to society the churches and the academy Can theology be both fully faithful to Christian tradition and Scripture and fully open to the challenges of the twenty-first century In this book an international team of contributors including some of the best known names in the field respond to these questions in programmatic essays that set the direction for future debates about the vocation of theology David Ford in whose honor the collection is produced has been for many years a key figure in articulating and shaping the role of contemporary theology The contributors are his colleagues collaborators and former students and their essays engage in dialogue with his work The main unifying feature of this exciting collection is not Ford's work per se however but a shared engagement with the pressing question of theology's vocation today
