12 Tips for Job Hunting Success

from PROTECH

► Have Questions

Don't be that person with no questions at the end of an interview. It's ok to write them down and bring with.

► Arrive on Time

Plan your route so you're not late. Pretty self-explanatory.

► Ask References Before

Don't assume a past manager or colleague will give you a good reference; make sure to talk to them before you list their name. One bad reference spoils the bunch.

► Lock up Your Cloud

Last weekend's party resulted in some hilarious photos you just had to share. Unless you want your private data seen by potential hiring managers, make sure your social media settings are on private.

► Do your Research

A great place to find out more about a company is through their YouTube Channel. Watch their videos so you have a talking point during an interview.

► Bring a Resume

Even if you emailed a resume in, make sure to bring a hard copy with.

► Set a Reminder

Even if you have great memory, set an alarm to remind you of upcoming interviews.

► Turn the Cell OFF

Leave the cell in the car during an interview or turn it completely off. Nothing is worse than a cellphone blaring in the middle of an interview.
