Christian Classics in Modern English Bernard Bangle, 2000-03-07 With today's accelerated pace of life preoccupation with careers and family demands there is little time for celebrating our humanity and even less time for seeking God So how does a twentieth century believer set about living as a Christian in such a society The writings of devout pilgrims such as Brother Lawrence Thomas Kempis and St Augustine refocus our attention on the basics of the Christian journey Retold in the language and setting of our world today these classics offer timely messages of startling relevance to Christians and those interested in Christianity

Sebastian Castellio, 1515-1563 Hans R. Guggisberg, Bruce Gordon, 2017-07-05 Sebastian Castellio linguist humanist and religious reformer is one of the most remarkable figures of the Reformation Attracted by Calvin's reforms Castellio moved to Geneva in the 1540s where he wrote his influential work on educational reform Ironically it was Castellio's work as a scholar in Geneva which was to lead to his falling out with Calvin and ultimately his forced departure from Geneva and his resettlement in Basle Exiled from Geneva Castellio soon attracted a circle of like minded reformers who opposed the intolerant attitude of Calvin exemplified by the execution of the heretical Michael Servetus It is Castellio's residence in Basle where he developed his liberal humanist approach to religious toleration in opposition to Calvin's dogmatic orthodoxy which forms the core of this study It explores what toleration meant and how both sides argued their case Much attention is paid to Castellio's most important work On Heretics in which he argues against the execution of those who err in the faith By telling the fascinating tale of Castellio's life this work illuminates the furious debate which he unleashed and how it marked a crucial stage in the development of Protestant thought
