Existential America George Cotkin, 2003-01-24 As Cotkin shows not only did Americans readily take to existentialism but they were already heirs to a rich tradition of thinkers from Jonathan Edwards and Herman Melville to Emily Dickinson and William James who had wrestled with the problems of existence and the contingency of the world long before Sartre and his colleagues After introducing the concept of an American existential tradition Cotkin examines how formal existentialism first arrived in America in the 1930s through discussion of Kierkegaard and the early vogue among New York intellectuals for the works of Sartre Beauvoir and Camus Research Handbook on Natural Law Theory Jonathan Crowe, Constance Youngwon Lee, 2019 p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 10 0px Arial p p2 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 10 0px Arial min height 11 0px span s1 font 10 0px Helvetica This thought provoking Research Handbook provides a snapshot of current research on natural law theory in ethics politics and law showcasing the breadth and diversity of contemporary natural law thought The Research Handbook on Natural Law Theory examines topics such as foundational figures in Western natural law theory natural law ideas in a variety of religious and cultural traditions normative foundations of natural law as well as issues of law and governance Featuring contributions by leading international scholars this Research Handbook offers a valuable resource for scholars in law philosophy religious studies and related fields The Church, The Gospel and Culture John Thornhill, 2024-10-31 John Thornhill 1929 2019 born in Brisbane Australia was educated at Marist Brothers Ashgrove and St John s College Woodlawn NSW After entering the Society of Mary Marist Fathers he was chosen for doctoral studies and ordained in Rome in 1955 John s life was mainly in theological ministry in teaching and guiding seminary students as an author theological consultant and in Adult Faith Education He was in turn Superior of the Marist Seminary Director of Sydney s Aquinas Academy a member of the Provincial Council He published books and many articles He had a special interest in the Church Christology the faith culture relationship all within an overall pastoral framework This collection of articles captures the scope and development of his theological concerns over many years Especially valuable and illuminating is the opening chapter in which we are invited to share with John as he reflects on his theological journey John Thornhill SM was one of Australia s most distinguished and respected theologians known and loved for his dedication to the Catholic community his gentleness and kindness and his zeal for the Gospel Apart from his several books including Sign and Promise A Theology of the Church for a Changing World 1988 and Making Australia Exploring Our National Conversation 1992 John contributed many articles to theological debate and Thomas Ryan sm and ATF Press have done us and John s legacy a fine service in gathering together some of these articles in this volume The essays collected here bear witness to key concerns of John's theological and pastoral work the centrality of Jesus and his Gospel the proclamation of the good news to Christian faith ecumenism including a grateful recognition of Protestantism's emphasis on the Gospel of salvation awareness of cultural and historical circumstances and the imperative for the Church to understand and creatively respond to the concrete contexts that its members inhabit the centrality of Scripture to Christian faith and the importance of a theology of Scripture in the life of the Church a theology that engages at the highest intellectual level with key currents of thought and as an open orthodoxy is receptive to whatever is true and life giving in them This collection reveals the heart of John's theological vocation to bring thought and scholarship to the service of believers to enable the Gospel to come alive in their midst John's Marist charism emphasises a quiet receptive presence to God in these articles we are given some of the fruits of his own attentive presence for the sake of serving and accompanying the pilgrim Church
