Revelation Responsibly Michael J. Gorman, 2011-01-01 Reading Revelation Responsibly is for those who are confused by afraid of and or preoccupied with the book of Revelation In rescuing the Apocalypse from those who either completely misinterpret it or completely ignore it Michael Gorman has given us both a guide to reading Revelation in a responsible way and a theological engagement with the text itself He takes interpreting the book as a serious and sacred responsibility believing how one reads teaches and preaches Revelation can have a powerful impact on one's own and other people's well being Gorman pays careful attention to the book's original historical and literary contexts its connections to the rest of Scripture its relationship to Christian doctrine and practice and its potential to help or harm people in their life of faith Rather than a script for the end times Gorman demonstrates how Revelation is a script for Christian worship witness and mission that runs counter to culturally embedded civil religion The Mentor Book of Irish Poetry Devin A. Garrity, 1965

The Countercultural Victory of 1 John in Greco-Roman Context Ahreum Kim, 2023-09-21 Ahreum Kim re-examines conquering language in 1 John arguing that when the letter is read with the context of Greco-Roman culture in mind the conflict extends beyond fighting within the Johannine community She suggests that the letter's author presents a consistent countercultural narrative due to concern about the predominant world and proposes that the author exhorts the minority Johannine community to hold onto their belief while proclaiming that they are triumphant conquerors against the prevailing world Kim first examines how conquering language toward a Johannine Nike utilizes militaristic undertones already familiar in Greco-Roman culture She argues that each of the opponents mentioned is affiliated with the world and it is ultimately the conquering of the world itself which marks the Johannine victory Kim demonstrates that the author references the negative fear of the divine in the polytheistic world which contrasts with the Johannine love of God and that his countercultural message continues to the very end with a concluding warning against the many worldly idols Finally she posits that the battle with the Greco-Roman world is ultimately a conflict of Pistis comparing Roman soldiers achieving military victories with a Pistis to their emperor and the repeated emphasis on Jesus as the true Son of God Would-be
