The Moving Image:

Engaging the Moving Image Noel Carroll, 2008-10-01 No 1 Carroll a brilliant and provocative philosopher of film has gathered in this book eighteen of his most recent essays on cinema and television what Carroll calls moving images The essays discuss topics in philosophy film theory and film criticism Drawing on concepts from cognitive psychology and analytic philosophy Carroll examines a wide range of fascinating topics These include film attention the emotional address of the moving image film and racism the nature and epistemology of documentary film the moral status of television the concept of film style the foundations of film evaluation the film theory of Siegfried Kracauer the ideology of the professional western and films by Sergei Eisenstein and Yvonne Rainer Carroll also assesses the state of contemporary film theory and speculates on its prospects The book continues many of the themes of Carroll s earlier work Theorizing the Moving Image and develops them in new directions A general introduction by George Wilson situates Carroll s essays in relation to his view of moving image studies

Philosophy and the Moving Image Noël Carroll, 2021-06-25 This book is a selection of essays by No 1 Carroll at the intersection of the major divisions of philosophy and film and TV including articles on moving images and metaphysics epistemology ethics political philosophy and aesthetics The Routledge Companion to History and the Moving Image

Marnie Hughes-Warrington, Kim Nelson, Mia E.M. Treacey, 2023-11-07 The Routledge Companion to History and the Moving Image takes an interdisciplinary approach to understanding history in moving images It engages this popular and dynamic field that has evolved rapidly from film and television to digital streaming into the age of user created content The volume addresses moving image history through a theoretical lens modes and genres representation race and identity and evolving forms and formats It brings together a range of scholars from across the globe who specialize in film and media studies cultural studies history philosophy of history and education Together the chapters provide a necessary contemporary analysis that covers new developments and questions that arise from the shift to digital screen culture The book examines technological and ethical concerns stemming from today s media landscape but it also considers the artificial construction of the boundaries between professional expertise and amateur production Each contributor s unique approach highlights the necessity of engaging with moving images for the academic discipline of history The collection written for a global audience offers accessible discussions of historiography and a compelling resource for advanced undergraduates and postgraduates in history film and media studies and communications Both Chapter 17 and the Afterword of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

The Attractions of the Moving Image Tom Gunning, 2025-04-30 An essential collection of new and selected essays by influential cinema and media studies scholar Tom Gunning Tom Gunning is the author of multiple books and nearly two hundred essays that have defined the field of cinema and media studies His works have transformed our understanding of early cinema and the American avant garde and reset the terms of many central debates in film and media history and theory His 1986 essay The Cinema of Attractions is among the most cited essays on film ever published Gunning's writings articulate a distinctive and powerful model for thinking about cinema's history and likely future addressing the full range of moving image media from film to still photography to digital media His discussions draw on stage melodrama and magic lantern shows as well as criminology world's fairs and Spiritualism surveying the medium as a cultural phenomenon informed by the industrial and information ages psychiatry urban experience discourses on art and aesthetics and more This collection brings together twenty six essays that showcase the depth and range of Gunning's scholarship including four that have never before been published Together they solidify Gunning's place as a scholar who has transformed the way generations of scholars archivists critics and artists think about cinema

Love, Mortality and the Moving Image E. Wilson, 2012-02-21 In their use of home movies collages of photographs and live footage moving image artists explore the wish to see dead loved ones living This study closely explores emotions and sensations surrounding mortality and longing with new readings of works by Agnès Varda Pedro Almodóvar Ingmar Bergman Sophie Calle and many others

Mapping the Moving Image Pasi Väliäho, 2010 In Mapping the Moving Image Pasi Väliäho offers a compelling study of how the medium of film came to shape our experience and thinking of the world and ourselves By locating the moving image in new ways of seeing and saying as manifest in the arts science and philosophy at the turn of the twentieth century the book redefines the cinema as one of the most important anthropological processes of modernity Moving beyond the typical understanding of cinema based on optical and linguistic models Mapping the Moving Image takes the notion of rhythm as its cue in conceptualizing the medium's morphogenetic potentialities to generate affectivity behaviour and logics of sense It provides a clear picture of how the forms of early film while mobilizing bodily gestures and demanding intimate affective engagement from the viewer emerged in relation to biopolitical investments in the body The book also charts from a fresh perspective how the new gestural dynamics and viscosity of the moving image fed into our thinking of time memory and the unconscious

Film And Television In Education Robert Watson, 2003-09-02 First published in 1990 The aim of the series is to define and defend a comprehensive aesthetic both theoretical and practical for the teaching of the arts There can be little doubt that of the six great arts which the Library of Aesthetic Education is committed to defending and defining film has been the most ignored in the curriculum of our schools There is a grand irony in this for film is not only the one unique art form developed in our own century but also the most unequivocally popular Film was envisaged as part of a system of communications which had to be decoded in terms of ideology and contextualized in terms of power and control Robert Watson's Film and Television in Education with its telling subtitle An Aesthetic Approach to the Moving Image sets out to remedy the neglect

The Moving Picture World, 1915

The Moving Image as Public Art Annie Dell'Aria, 2021-05-08 This book maps the presence of moving images within the field of public art through encounters with passersby It argues that far from mere distraction or spectacle moving images can produce moments of enchantment that can renew intensify or challenge our everyday engagement with public space and each other These artworks also offer frameworks for understanding how moving images operate in public space how they move viewers and reconfigure the site of the screen Each chapter explores a mode of address that examines how artists and curators leverage the moving image s attentional power to engage audiences create spaces make place and challenge assumptions This book also examines the difficulties and compromises that arise when using urban screens for public art
