Reformed Systematic Theology, Volume 3 Joel Beeke, Paul M. Smalley, 2021-12-01 Here is catechesis at its best instructing the student of theology providing pastors with a sermon enriching manual and giving growing Christians a resource book that will both inform and nourish them as well as provide endless theological enjoyment Sinclair B Ferguson Chancellor's Professor of Systematic Theology Reformed Theological Seminary Teaching Fellow Ligonier Ministries The aim of systematic theology is to engage not only the head but also the heart and hands Only recently has the church compartmentalized these aspects of life separating the academic discipline of theology from the spiritual disciplines of faith and obedience This multivolume work brings together rigorous historical and theological scholarship with spiritual disciplines and practical insights characterized by a simple accessible comprehensive Reformed and experiential approach In this volume Joel R Beeke and Paul M Smalley unpack the work and role of the Holy Spirit Pneumatology and salvation soteriology The authors examine the Holy Spirit's role in the history of salvation the order of salvation and the believer's experience of salvation As readers consider the interrelationship between the Spirit and salvation they are invited to explore the direct activity of the Lord in their lives for their salvation

The Battle for the Sabbath in the Dutch Reformation Kyle J. Dieleman, 2019-01-21 Kyle J Dieleman focuses on the doctrinal and practical importance of Sunday observance in the early modern Reformed communities in the Low Countries My project investigates the theological import of the Sabbath and its practical applications The first step is to focus on how Dutch Reformed theologians conceived of the Sabbath The theology of the Sabbath I argue moves over time from an emphasis on spiritual rest to participating in the ministries of the church to a strict rest from all work and recreation The next step is to explore congregants' actual Sunday practices By attending to church governance records at the national regional and local levels the importance of proper Sabbath observance quickly becomes clear The provincial synod records classes records and consistory records indicate that church authorities were adamant that church members faithfully attend sermon and catechism services refrain from sinful practices and abstain from recreational activities Equally as telling as the observance demanded of church members is how church authorities responded The church records portray these authorities as fretting over the disordered and unregulated nature of improper Sabbath observance Having established the importance of the Sabbath in Dutch Reformed theology and lived piety I argue the emphasis on Sunday observance is best understood as resulting from two main factors First the emphasis on proper Sunday observance is a result of the Reformed church authorities attempting to maintain the pious reputation of the Reformed faith and establish the identity of the Reformed Church amid multiple other confessional identities Second proper observance of the Sabbath was important because it ensured order within the church and society more broadly The New Christian Zionism Gerald R. McDermott,2016-09-10 Christian Zionism is often seen as the offspring of premillennial dispensationalism But the authors of this work contend that the biblical and theological connections between covenant and land are nearly as close in the New Testament as in Old Written with academic rigor this provocative volume proposes a place for Christian Zionism in an integrated biblical vision today God's Glory Alone---The Majestic Heart of Christian Faith and Life David VanDrunen,2015-12-01 Renowned scholar David VanDrunen tracks the historical and biblical roots of the idea that all glory belongs exclusively to God God's Glory Alone is a beautiful reflection on how commitment to God's glory alone fortifies us to live godly lives in this present age Reinvigorating one of the five great declarations of the Reformation soli Deo gloria VanDrunen Examines the development of this theme in the Reformation in subsequent Reformed theology and confessions and in contemporary theologians who continue to be inspired by the conviction that all glory belongs to God Turns to the biblical story of God's glory beginning with the pillar of cloud and fire revealed to Israel continuing through the incarnation death and exaltation of the Lord Jesus Christ and culminating in Christ's Second Coming and the glorification of his people Addresses several of today's great cultural challenges and temptations that attempt to draw us away from a God-centered instead of self-centered way of life This book leads you into a renewed sense of awe and adoration for our Creator and Redeemer as it mines deeply into the biblical and theological truths about God's glory that stand at the center of the Christian faith THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God's glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches History of the Christian Church George Park Fisher,1910 History of the Christian Church John Fletcher Hurst,1897 The Pulpit Orator Johann Evangelist Zollner,1884 Dissenting Daughters Amanda Pipkin,2022 Dissenting Daughters reveals the vital contribution made by devout women to the spread and practice of the Reformed faith in the Dutch Republic in the 16th and 17th centuries drawing on the histories of six women Cornelia Teellinck Susanna Teellinck Anna Maria van Schurman Sara Nevius Cornelia Leydekker and Henrica van Hoolwerff A Select Library of Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Christian Church: Leo the Great.
