The Role Of The Philosopher Today:

The Liberating Philosophy of Ignacio Ellacuría Randall Carrera Umaña, Luis Arturo Martínez Vásquez, Luis Rubén Díaz Cepeda, 2024-01-16 The Liberating Philosophy of Ignacio Ellacuría: A Historical Reality, Humanism and Praxis is the first systematic work on the philosophy of Ignacio Ellacuría to be published in English so far. The Spaniard, Salvadorian philosopher, murdered in Salvador in 1989 by the military, maintains that philosophy is a permanent task grounded in metaphysics as first philosophy as developed within a historical reality and a preferential option for the poor. As explored by this collection edited by Luis Arturo Martínez Vásquez, Randall Carrera Umaña and Luis Rubén Díaz Cepeda, Ellacuría's theory is a critical and practical proposal immersed in the colonial history of Central America but its explanatory and normative power extends to oppressed people all around the world. The contributors to this volume, coming from Spain, Mexico, Argentina, Salvador and Costa Rica, analyze Ellacuría's philosophy of liberation in conjunction with radical realism and strength, describing it as a philosophy created by people concerned with the problems and history of our land, such as our colonial past, systemic poverty and dependency, and responding to these concerns can offer alternatives for a true liberation of all the dominated peoples of the world.

The Mystery of Hope in the Philosophy of Gabriel Marcel, 1888-1973)
Albert B. Randall, 1992 This study explores Marcel's understanding of hope as it relates to many categories including activity, act, life, anxiety, strangeness, availability, unavailability, being, having, captivity, trials, charity, communion, intersubjectivity, concrete philosophy, creativity, death, desire, despair, faith, prayer, sacrifice, suicide, and many others. In addition, the book offers a spiritual biography of Marcel based on his two essays in autobiography, a bibliography of secondary material, and appendices which index Marcel's major passages on the themes described above.

Doing Theology in Today's World
John D. Woodbridge, 1994-07 This volume focuses on a central question: What does a person need to know for developing a theology? In other words, this book will not only answer objections lodged against the study of theology but will explain to students, pastors, and laypersons alike what a theologian actually does. It will also present different approaches to the study of theology and review the present status of theological reflection in various Protestant, Orthodox, and Roman Catholic traditions. In the first section of the book, evangelical Protestant scholars describe the contributions various disciplines make to the study of theology. In the next section, evangelical Protestant scholars explain the distinctives of their approaches to doing theology. In the third part, theologians who do not identify with evangelical Protestant convictions seek to explain the distinctives of their approaches to doing theology. In the final section, Dr. Kantzer provides a summary analysis of how he does theology and interacts critically with a number of essays in this volume.
