The Safe Place Inside Samita Srivastava, 2026-02-27 This book was not planned It was lived It was written in moments of fear and courage in quiet nights and busy mornings in tears that needed space and laughter that needed permission It is a book born from real life where feelings were messy answers were not always clear and yet growth kept happening Inside these pages lives a little child sometimes scared sometimes angry sometimes quiet sometimes playful That child might look like Aashi But if you read closely you may find yourself there too Each chapter gently touches a feeling many of us carry but rarely talk about fear shame comparison grief perfection longing attachment and hope These are not problems to fix They are experiences to understand soften and hold with care This book is for parents caregivers and especially for those who are raising others while re parenting themselves It is for anyone who had to grow up too soon who learned to be strong without being taught how to feel safe It is also for those who keep bouncing back even when no one is watching The simple stories and affirmations shared here are tools you can return to again and again for your inner child and for the children or people who look up to you I offer deep gratitude to my mentor Dr Yogendra Singh Rathore YSR Sir whose guidance met me when I felt lost and unsure And I also honor myself for choosing to rise reflect and rebuild one moment at a time If this book makes you pause breathe or feel a little less alone then it has already done its work Welcome to the journey
