Springtime Michelle De Kretser, 2016-04-12 This is a gorgeous delicately surprising piece of writing It s like spirit photography all fuzzy outlines and unaccountable light a snapshot of something that may or may not exist Terrence Rafferty The New York Times Book Review When Frances met Charlie at a party in Melbourne he was married with a young son Now that the couple has moved to subtropical Sydney a lush and more chaotic city Frances has an unshakable sense that the world has tipped on its axis Everything seems alien and exotic and Frances is haunted by the unknowability of Charlie s previous life A young art historian studying the objects in paintings the material world Frances takes mind clearing walks around her neighborhood with her dog Behind the fence of one garden she thinks she sees a woman in an old fashioned gown but something is not right It s as if the garden exists in a vacuum suspended in time at an angle to life Springtime is a ghost story that doesn t conform to the genre s traditions of dark and stormy nights graveyards and ruins It breaks new ground by unfolding in sunny suburban Australia and the realism of the characters and events make the story s ambiguities and eeriness all the more disquieting The richness of observation here is immediately recognizable as Michelle de Kretser s a writer who has been praised by Hilary Mantel as a master of the sharp almost hallucinatory detail

The Beasts, the Graves, and the Ghosts Hann Tzuu Joey Tan, 2020-05-31 At the heart of the gospel is the message of the incarnation God translating himself into the context of human culture and language so we might know him Far from coming to an end with Christ s life on earth this process of contextualization is ongoing reoccurring every time the gospel encounters the particularities of society and culture In this book Hann Tzuu Tan explores the significance of contextualized preaching within the Chinese context Against the backdrop of three major festivals the Spring Festival the Qing Ming Festival and the Hungry Ghost Festival Tan examines the practices of six experienced Chinese preachers in order to demonstrate the theological and practical importance of contextualized preaching As a result of his research Tan suggests six main principles for contextual preaching principles that are rooted within a Chinese context yet applicable to anyone seeking to express the gospel s relevance within a particular cultural setting Combining insights from biblical studies applied theology and ethnography this interdisciplinary study will enrich one s understanding of Chinese culture the gospel and the important and necessary work of contextualization

The Religious History in the Spring and Autumn Period and the Warring States Period Li Shi, The book is the volume of The Religious History in the Spring and Autumn Period and the Warring States Period among a series of books of Deep into China Histories The earliest known written records of the history of China date from as early as 1250 BC from the Shang dynasty c 1600 1046 BC and the Bamboo Annals 296 BC describe a Xia dynasty c 2070 1600 BC before the Shang but no writing is known from the period The Shang ruled in the Yellow River valley which is commonly held to be the cradle of Chinese civilization However Neolithic civilizations originated at various cultural centers along both the Yellow River and Yangtze River These Yellow River and Yangtze civilizations arose millennia before the Shang With thousands of years of continuous history China is one of the world s oldest civilizations and is regarded as one of the cradles of civilization The Zhou dynasty 1046 256 BC supplanted the Shang and introduced the concept of the Mandate of Heaven to justify their rule The central Zhou government began to weaken due to external and internal pressures in the 8th century BC and the country eventually splintered into smaller states during the Spring and Autumn period These states became independent and warred with one another in the following Warring States period Much of traditional Chinese culture literature and philosophy first developed during those troubled times In 221 BC Qin Shi Huang conquered the various warring states and created for himself the title of Huangdi or emperor of the Qin marking the beginning of imperial China However the oppressive government fell soon after his death and was supplanted by the longer lived Han dynasty 206 BC 220 AD Successive dynasties developed bureaucratic systems that enabled the emperor to control vast territories directly In the 21 centuries from 206 BC until AD 1912 routine administrative tasks were handled by a special elite of scholar officials Young men well versed in calligraphy history literature and philosophy were carefully selected through difficult government examinations China s last dynasty was the Qing 1644 1912 which was replaced by the Republic of China in 1912 and in the mainland by the People s Republic of China in 1949 Chinese history has alternated between periods of political unity and peace and periods of war and failed statehood the most recent being the Chinese Civil War 1927 1949 China was occasionally dominated by steppe peoples most of whom were eventually assimilated into the Han Chinese culture and population Between eras of multiple kingdoms and warlordism Chinese dynasties have ruled parts or all of China in some eras control stretched as far as Xinjiang and Tibet as at present Traditional culture and influences from other parts of Asia and the Western world carried by waves of immigration cultural assimilation expansion and foreign contact form the basis of the modern culture of China
