Three Generations, Two Genders, One World Sylvia H. Chant, Cathy McIlwaine, 1998 Based on surveys in which young women or men interviewed their siblings parents and grandparents on matters of relevance to gender including gender roles and relations Third World Planning Review, 1999 The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Women's Issues Worldwide Lynn Walter, 2003 Women are working internationally to build a world based on gender equality and justice Their concerns are shaped by conditions in their own countries and regions and also by conditions for women in other parts of the world Links forged by globalization international relations United Nations gender equality and development programs and women's nongovernmental organizations connect their futures This groundbreaking reference set documents the achievements and current challenges for all women providing distortion free and newly available information about women's status in matters from education to violence in more than 130 countries in the world's most populated areas Written by an international host of contributing specialists this set is accessible to high school students and above Its consistent narrative coverage and relevant statistics are ideal for research and comparisons Readers will find that conceptions of women's issues vary by country as the set illuminates diverse perspectives and contemporary practices that shape the variations in equality and well being among women Judicious inclusion of historical processes helps frame the issues in a holistic perspective Volume maps individual country maps tables photos and indexes by set and volume are also included Women's Writing in Western Europe Adalgisa Giorgio, Julia Waters, 2007 Women's writing has in recent decades been one of the most exciting and productive areas of literary creativity and critical analysis Thirty years on from the initial spectacular blossoming of women's writing and from pioneering critical projects to re-construct a female literary tradition Women's Writing in Western Europe: Gender, Generation and Legacy is the first study to investigate the legacy of this earlier generation of writers texts and theories for contemporary women writers from across western Europe This important and timely book brings together original analyses by different generations of critics from around the globe from internationally renowned feminist scholars to promising doctoral students Their sophisticated studies uncover a complex web of explicit and implicit intertextual links between contemporary writers and such iconic figures as Aleramo Beauvoir Colette Cixous Duras Irigaray Kristeva Morante Morgner Wolf and Woolf so attesting to the existence of a truly international women's culture across ever more fluid national borders Women's Writing in Western Europe is a major intervention in the field of feminist literary criticism which offers new comparative understandings of such key theoretical concepts as intertextuality intergenerational relations gender identity and legacy oeCovering an enormous range of writers and national traditions Women's Writing in Western Europe: Gender, Generation and Legacy attests to the vibrancy and the currency of feminist criticism and theory in the new Europe These essays give us new paradigms to think and read with in the future Professor Marianne Hirsch Columbia University New York oeThirty years after the creative outburst of women's writing and feminist theory of the early 1970s can we still speak of a women TM s tradition of writing of gender and generation of the iconic role of the mother figure This dense and wide ranging collection of essays engages with the dynamics of legacy and conflict of recognition and denial to map out some of the many complex strands and relationships marking the textual relations of women TM s writing across time and geographic boundaries No simple tradition of women TM s writing emerges but the powerful hold exerted by some of the most canonical writers Beauvoir Woolf Cixous Irigaray Kristeva Rich and the evidence of the construction of new relationships between and across texts by women points to a continuing network of transmission in which women TM s texts are enmeshed This is an important collection and a large readership will be grateful for this probing of issues which are at the heart of the reading of women TM s writing Professor Elizabeth Fallaize St John TM s College Oxford
