Transport Revolution and Travels to Asia, 1860s-1920s Tomasz Ewertowski, Waclaw Forajter, Oliwia Gromadzka, 2025-02-11 During the long 19th century a technological revolution occurred leading to the emergence of new means of transport such as steamships railways cars aeroplanes bicycles and rickshaws This transport revolution not only fundamentally transformed modes of travel and made distant lands more accessible but it also significantly impacted how travellers experienced the world The authors of this volume aim to deepen the understanding of the influence of these new modes of transportation and their coexistence with older ones by incorporating a comprehensive range of sources written by both European and Asian travellers The approach presented in this volume is inspired by the anthropology of the senses the sociology of travel and the cultural history of transport These methodological frameworks are applied to accounts of travels to from and within Asia This perspective enables a focus on various contexts not visible in Europe including imperialism Eurocentric approaches to modernisation and the reactions of colonised peoples to these developments

Through a Land of Extremes Nicholas Clinch, Elizabeth Clinch, 2011-06-03 Teresa and St George Littledale were an unlikely British couple who explored Central Asia in the 1890s with their fox terrier The Littledale s were very well known in their time for their extensive travels and exceptional adventures but have been almost completely forgotten this is the first book about their fascinating story St George Littledale received the Patron s Medal from the Royal Geographical Society but Teresa was overlooked For thirty years St George Littledale and his wife Teresa mounted expeditions in North America and Asia Through a Land of Extremes gives a taste for a bygone time of travel into uncharted unknown territory when adventurers lived by a combination of wit charm and luck Of independent means the Littledales began in the American Rockies Yellowstone and Alaska These trips were followed by expeditions in the late 1880s in the Caucasus the Pamirs Russian Central Asia and Mongolia Their greatest exploit was a 14 month journey to Tibet in 1895 They were attempting to reach the Forbidden City of Lhasa the great unmet goal of Central Asian explorers In order to minimize their chances of being discovered before they neared their goal St George selected a route across the desolate uninhabited Tibetan Plateau At a 19 000 foot pass they were finally blocked by 150 armed Tibetans The Tibetans allowed them to continue over the pass to a suitable stopping place The Littledales had come within 49 miles of Lhasa closer than any other foreigners since 1846 This title is part of our LEGENDS AND LORE series Click here to learn more The Cambridge Modern History Planning by the Late Lord Acton ... ,1910
