Identities Jean-Marie Floch,2001-01-01 The six essays of Visual Identities are an important contribution to the growing field of industrial semiotics Floch s major strength is his analysis of signs in a way which is both industrially relevant and textually precise Until recently there have been two quite different and distinct ways of understanding commerical signs such as logos and advertisements Industry based work has tended to look at questions of marketing and has often been reduced to the mass psychology of appeal and audience research whereas the textual analysis of commerical signs has tended to come from limited positions of identity politics and criticism Marxism feminism etc Floch manages to find a way between and also outside these traditions In doing so he has produced a book which will interest industrial practitioners in advertising marketing and design as well as students and academics in semiotics European fashion Regina Lee Blaszczyk, Véronique Pouillard, 2018-02-07 The period since 1945 has been a transformative era for the fashion industry Over the course of seventy years the fashion world has moved from celebrating the craftsmanship of haute couture to revelling in ever changing fast fashion This volume examines the transition from the old system to the new in a series of case studies grouped around three major themes Part I focuses on Paris as a creative hub aiming to understand how the birthplace of haute couture adapted to late twentieth century developments Part II considers the retailer s role in shaping taste responding to consumer expectations and disseminating fashion merchandise Part III looks to alternative visions of the European fashion system that have appeared in unexpected places The volume is highly interdisciplinary covering design history cultural anthropology ethnography management studies and the cultural history of business Illinois Central Magazine ,1916 Publications Educational Finance Inquiry Commission,1924 New Building Estimators' Handbook William Arthur,1922 The Barrister ,1894 The Company I Keep Leonard A.
