The Viking Jews Ib Nathan Bamberger, 1983 Traces the history of the Jews in Denmark beginning with the settlement of the first Sephardic Jews invited from Holland in 1622 Denmark's Jews enjoyed privileges and were never forced to live in a ghetto An attempt by the Lutheran Church to convert them in 1728 was abandoned A literary attack in 1813 when Thomas Thaarus translated German writer Friedrich Buchholz's antisemitic pamphlet Moses og Jesus degenerated into an attack on Jewish civil and political rights The Danish tolerant attitude remained unchanged however and full emancipation was granted by King Frederick IV in 1814 while the More Judaico oath was abrogated only in 1843 The German occupation of Denmark in 1940 did not affect the Jews until martial law was introduced in August 1943 which was followed by the deportation of 464 Jews to Theresienstadt Most of the Danish Jews escaped to Sweden

The Jewish World In Modern Times Abraham J Edelheit, Hershel Edelheit, 2019-09-10 The momentous events of modern Jewish history have led to a proliferation of books and articles on Jewish life over the last 350 years Placing modern Jewish history into both universal and local contexts this selected annotated bibliography organizes and categorizes the best of this vast array of written material The authors have included all English language books of major importance on world Jewry and on individual Jewish communities plus books most readily available to researchers and readers and a select number of pamphlets and articles The resulting bibliography is also a guide to recent Jewish historiography and research methods

Jewish Migration and the Archive James Jordan, Lisa Leff, Joachim Schlör, 2017-10-02 Migration is and has always been a disruptive experience Freedom from oppression and hope for a better life are counter balanced by feelings of loss loss of family members of a home of personal belongings Memories of the migration process itself often fade quickly away in view of the new challenges that await immigrants in their new homelands This volume asks and shows how migration memories have been kept stored forgotten and indeed retrieved in many different archives in official institutions in heritage centres as well as in personal and family collections Based on a variety of examples and conceptual approaches from artistic approaches to the family archive via smell and memory as archives to a cultural history of the suitcase this volume offers a new and original way to write Jewish history and the history of Jewish migration in the context of personal and public memory The documents reflect the transitory character of the migration experience and they tell stories of longing and belonging This book was originally published as a special issue of Jewish Culture and History

Jewish American Writing and World Literature Saul Noam Zaritt, 2020 This book explores how Jewish American writers like Sholem Asch Jacob Glatstein Isaac Bashevis Singer Anna Margolin Saul Bellow and Grace Paley think of themselves as world writers and the successes and failures that come with this role

After the Rescue A. Buckser, 2003-05-29 In October of 1943 the Danish resistance rescued almost all of the Jews in Copenhagen from roundups by the occupying Nazis In the years since Jews have become deeply engaged in a Danish culture that presents very few barriers of antisemitism or prejudice This book explores the questions that such inclusion raises for the Danish Jews and what their answers can tell us about the meaning of religion ethnicity and community in modern society Social scientists have long argued that modernity poses challenges for traditional ethnic communities by breaking down the networks of locality kinship religion and occupation that have held such communities together For the Danish Jews inclusion into the larger society has led to increasing fragmentation as the community has split into a bewildering array of religious social and political factions Yet it remains one of Scandinavia s most vital religious organizations and Jewishness remains central to self understanding for thousands of its members How this has happened how the Jewish world has maintained its significance while losing any sense of coherence or unity suggests a new understanding of the meaning of ethnic community in contemporary society The Literature of American Jews Theodore L. Gross,1973 A peasant s scheme to rid himself of troublesome cranes leads him into even deeper trouble Niels Bohr, 1913-2013 Olivier Darrigol,Bertrand Duplantier,Jean-Michel Raimond,Vincent Rivasseau,2016-04-07 This fourteenth volume in the Poincar Seminar Series is devoted to Niels Bohr his foundational contributions to understanding atomic structure and quantum theory and their continuing importance today This book contains the following chapters Tomas Bohr Keeping Things Open Olivier Darrigol Bohr s Trilogy of 1913 John Heilbron The Mind that Created the Bohr Atom Serge Haroche Alain Aspect From Einstein Bohr Schr dinger to Bell and Feynman a New Quantum Revolution Antoine Browaeys Interacting Cold Rydberg Atoms A Toy Many Body System Michel Bitbol Stefano Osnaghi Bohr s Complementarity and Kant s Epistemology Dating from their origin in lectures to a broad scientific audience these seven chapters are of high educational value This volume is of general interest to physicists mathematicians and historians Rationality and Social Responsibility Joachim I. Krueger,2008-04-09 The breadth of topics reflects Dawes s wide ranging impact on psychological theory and empirical practice The two themes of rationality and social responsibility feature heavily The book serves as an overview of psychological science development in its struggle to reconcile what is true with what is good The Athenaeum Subject Index to Periodicals ,1916 Ethnology ,2005 The American Hebrew ,1924 A History of the Jews, from the Babylonian Exile to the End of World War II. Solomon Grayzel,1948 The Subject Index to Periodicals ,1916 The National Jewish Blue Book ,1927 A History of the Jews Solomon Grayzel,1950 The Jewish Forum ,1930 The National Jewish Monthly ,1928 Jews in the Pageant of American Freedom ,1926 Saving the Bulgarian Jews in World War II Khristo Boiřdzhev,Christo Boyadjeff,1989
