The Female Homicide Offender Stacey L. Shipley,Bruce A. Arrigo,2004 Why do some female homicide offenders commit serial murder The answer to this question has eluded criminal profilers and police officers for decades Although researchers have offered some tentative explanations based on the limited cases documented no systematic treatment of this phenomenon has occurred in the popular and academic literature at least not until now In this engaging accessible and detailed book authors Stacey L Shipley Psy D and Bruce A Amigo Ph D put many of the missing pieces together shedding new and provocative light on this fascinating though deadly crime Relying on insights from psychology and criminology they argue that unresolved trauma following poor or severed childhood attachments to parents can result in disorderly conduct in adolescents who act delinquently and psychopathic adults who behave criminally In order to test this theory Shipley and Arrigo turn to the high profile case of Aileen Wuornos a woman executed in 2002 for the cold blooded and calculated murders of seven men Challenging conventional wisdom that female killers are victims of abuse the authors provide a cogent and penetrating analysis raising many disturbing questions about the nature of predatory and serial murders committed by women Going well beyond the confines of the Aileen Wuornos case Shipley and Arrigo also examine the ethical dilemmas inherent in a culture of violence where the systems of criminal justice and mental health seemingly fail to assist persons in profound distress At issue here is the manner in which society helps to create the female homicide offender including those women who kill repeatedly
