Whether the singing voice in film is personally expressive reflexive and distant or synchronized for entertainment there is typically interplay between the voice and visual elements Extending beyond the body of literature on the musical the volume is not about musicals per se Rather The Singing Voice in Contemporary Cinema discusses the singing voice as a distinct agent that focuses on identity and identification This book explores the relationship between screen singing singer and song it celebrates the intersection of the singing voice and popular culture In doing so the volume will cross multiple disciplines including vocal studies film studies film sound studies and music production vocal processing Experimental Cinema ,1930
