

I am King MINOS, the mighty ruler of Crete. For decades, all the kings of Greece feared my ruthless navy. But when my wife and queen, Pasiphae, gave birth to a monster, I commanded Daedalus the inventor to build a prison from which it could never escape. Now I feed my enemies to the monster, and no one dares challenge me.

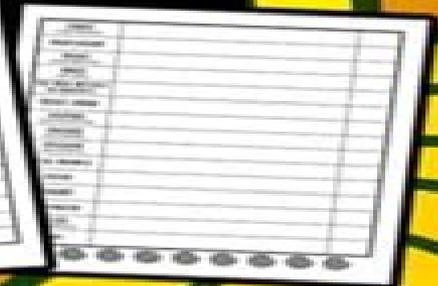

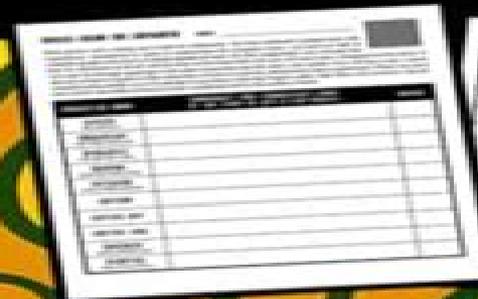

I am POSEIDON, the mighty god of the sea, and any king who hopes to sail his ships across my sea must receive my blessing. Since King Minos was the unparalleled ruler of the Mediterranean, I sent a beautiful white bull out of the sea to show him my favor. He was supposed to sacrifice it to my honor. When he did not, I conspired with Aphrodite to curse him.

What do I know of the world? Only darkness have I seen. I wander the maze. The curved walls comfort me. Rats are my main food, but sometimes I find humans there. I devour them. A girl came once. She spoke to me and taught me to understand her words. She told me I was not just a beast, but a human, too. One day I encountered a boy, who did not fear me. He had the strength of ten men. He battled me. He overpowered me. He took the life from me. But I remember who I am. The girl told me. I am ASTERION.
