Chocolate for a Woman's Courage by Kay Allenbaugh, 2003-01-22. Be Brave, Celebrate, and Eat Chocolate. Every woman knows that courage isn't just something you find in a crisis; it's something you tap into every day of your life. In this triumphant salute to mothers, daughters, sisters, friends, and colleagues, these 77 true life stories celebrate women at their best: willing to take risks, stand up for family and friends, find the love they need, claim their true spirit, laugh at their own foibles, and celebrate someone else's success. Once again, Kay Allenbaugh has called upon women of all ages and backgrounds to share their own experiences, as well as the strength and wisdom that have helped them through everyday challenges and difficult times. Here are tales about surviving loss, showing compassion, getting fired, and getting even, facing illness, laughing at yourself when the chips are down, and stopping long enough to enjoy sweet success. This volume in the beloved Chocolate series celebrates a softer element of courage: kind yet strong, loving yet steadfast, exploring the many subtle ways courage manifests itself in day-to-day life. This book is sure to feed your hunger for courage. Preacher Woman by Katie Lauve-Moon, 2021. When organizations are committed to gender equality, what gets in the way of their achieving it? How and why do well-intentioned people end up reinforcing sexism? Katie Lauve Moon examines these questions by focusing on religious congregations that separated from their mainline denomination in order to support women's equal leadership. In Preacher Woman, Lauve Moon concentrates on congregations affiliated with the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship (CBF). Women are enrolling in Baptist seminaries at almost equal rates as men, and CBF identifies the equal leadership of women as a core component of its collective identity, yet only five percent of CBF congregations employ women as solo senior pastors. Preacher Woman explores how congregations can be committed to ideas of gender parity while still falling short in practice. Lauve Moon investigates how institutional sexism is upheld through both unconscious and conscious biases. In doing so, she demonstrates that addressing issues of sexism and gender inequality within organizations must extend beyond good intentions and inclusive policies.

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others as faithful stewards of God's grace. I Peter 4:10. The women whose stories are in these pages display many exceptional traits. They are wise, dependable, thrifty, energetic, and unselfish. They are good wives, mothers, daughters, sisters, and friends. Some will stand out in one or more of these spheres, while others will shine in different areas.

But there is one thing they all have in common: they were all very courageous. How do these women show their courage? Many will exhibit grace under fire They have a strong presence of mind They are able to act decisively because they are sure of their convictions A courageous woman can say I m sorry and mean it She is gracious Courageous women depend on God They trust Him and accept His will in their lives They are willing to accept what God gives them in their lives When they perceive His will they put their all into the tasks before them Brave women are willing to take a stand for what they believe They will draw a line in the sand and not cross it Unjust powers no matter how fearsome will not deter them from their righteous goals Courageous women also love others They are unselfish They put the needs of others ahead of their own Their confidence in God s call in their lives is high enough to free them to be able to act independently Women of courage will share Christ s gospel of peace forgiveness joy and love with others We live in uncertain times Only the courageous woman will get through the perils holding her head up high In these stories we have examples before us of how a victorious life can be lived
