Women Creating Women:

Gender and Women's Leadership Karen O'Connor, 2010-08-18 These volumes provide an authoritative reference resource on leadership issues specific to women and gender with a focus on positive aspects and opportunities for leadership in various domains

The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University, 1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen's Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women's novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women's fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women's fiction

Deconstructing Refugee Women's Empowerment Zeynep Kilicoglu, 2025-04-16 This book explores how self-identified feminist or women's organizations in the asylum and charity sectors in the United Kingdom and France attach meanings to and address refugee women's empowerment in their operations and how these perpetuate or disrupt global hierarchies Adopting a feminist intersectional and post-colonial approach this book provides a nuanced assessment on how refugee assistance might move beyond the dominant vulnerability versus empowerment dichotomy Acknowledging how some of the current practices still impose vulnerability on women it aims to contribute to the newly established literature exploring how refugeehood and asylum seeking are not necessarily disempowering for fleeing women as they can provide new opportunities for negotiating gender norms supporting women to practice agency Building on rich empirical work conducted via semistructured interviews with refugee women and aid professionals and participant observation in refugee communities the book scrutinises how refugee women's empowerment is embedded in the histories of colonialism biopolitics racism and patriarchy which legitimises the boundaries between the West and the rest and it sheds light on the new strategies created by communities to move beyond these hierarchies acknowledging women as autonomous actors who do not need to rely on aid structures Students and scholars of migration and refugee studies feminist international relations gender studies postcolonial studies alongside humanitarian practitioners policy makers and advocates that operate at various levels will find this interdisciplinary book useful for understanding the realities of refugee women and professional workers in aid structures Women's Rights after the Arab Spring Laura Guercio,2019-09-12 When protests erupted across the Middle East and North Africa MENA in 2011 the general view was that these events would bring forward the regeneration of democracy They were also meant to represent the Spring of women s fight for freedom and equality As time passed it became clear that the process of social and political changes necessary to tackle female issues would be a long one The Thahiris and their equivalents did not prevail and in the absence or weakness of political institutions Islamic parties emerged The urgent issue then became how to reconcile the demands of women with the Islamic character of the new political establishments This book discusses this issue through the analysis of the socio political meanings of the constitutional reforms after the 2011 Arab Spring It is inspired by the testimony of local women from the MENA area who can be the makers of real social change Women of ... , International ,1923 Women Willa Muir,1925 The author explores the composite portrayal of women arguing against generalizations and distortions She points to men s fear of women as proof that women are not naturally inferior or subordinate On the other hand she questions the sentimentalized ideal of women and the reverence for woman as a mother figure Bookdealer s description A History of Women's Education in the United States Thomas Woody,1929 Women and Media Cynthia M. Lont,1995 Cynthia M Lont s Women and Media Content Careers and Criticism brings you an incisive and often surprising look at the experiences of women in the media as news and as newsmakers In this vivid collection of essays leading scholars and media watchers consider the images issues and hidden triumphs of women in seven different media newspapers women s magazines advertising television television news film and music music television Women and Media takes an exceptionally comprehensive approach exploring women s experiences in each medium from three different angles a content analysis of the portrayal of women within the medium an account of a woman or women s organization and their often overlooked impact on the medium and a thought provoking essay that raises critical and challenging issues concerning women and media today Written from a diverse range of perspectives the essays cross boundaries of age race and nationality Each media specific section begins with an overview that provides a brief history as well as background information on women s employment and portrayal within that medium An extensive bibliography including a videography and project suggestions encourage you to dig deeper into the rich lives and real issues of women and the media Biennial of the General Federation of Women's Clubs General Federation of Women's Clubs,1910 The Married Women's Property Acts 1882 with an Introduction and Critical and Explanatory Notes and Appendix Smith,1882 Legal and Political Status of Women in Iowa Ruth Augusta Gallaher,1918 Women in Ghana Elizabeth Ardayfio-Schandorf,Kate O.

Gonzalez,1999-09-30 So many male critics have attacked Ireland s contemporary women poets whether through hostile reviews outright silence or condescending praise that the impression has been created that very few men appreciate these women s poetry Gonzalez has produced the first book ever to appear in Irish studies in which men make it a point to praise literature written by Irish women Included are two essays studying the structure of Eavan Boland s poetry sequences some close readings of Medbh McGuckian s most challenging poems and the first formal scholarly pieces ever devoted exclusively to Paula Meehan Rita Ann Higgins and Mary O Malley Additional chapters treat the works of Eilean Ni Chuilleanain and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Women poets have made substantial contributions to Irish literature particularly in the last few decades However so many male critics have attacked Ireland s women poets whether through hostile reviews outright silence or condescending praise that the impression has been created that very few men appreciate these women s poetry With some notable exceptions most academic appraisals by men have been less than enthusiastic Many women also point to the treatment these poets receive in various anthologies which typically include only token portions of literature written by women In his book Gonzalez has responded to these slights by offering a forum to a significant number of men to express their highest praise for Ireland s women poets Until now no book has ever appeared in Irish studies in which men make it a point to praise literature written by Irish women In this book Gonzalez includes two essays on each of Ireland s best known women poets Eavan Boland Eilean Ni Chuilleanain Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill and Medbh McGuckian Three other essays are the first formal scholarly pieces entirely dedicated to Paula Meehan Rita Ann Higgins or Mary O Malley In his pioneering effort Gonzalez helps establish the place of these contemporary women poets in the Irish literary canon corrects the popular misconception that male critics are unresponsive to their works and encourages further exploration of Irish women poets by male scholars and critics Woman Suffrage ... United States.
