James William Tutt

Woodsie Again:

Tug McGinn James William Gibson, 2007-12 Tug McGinn is an easy read and an entertaining story of a young man and the Indian scout he befriends. In time they find Tug's brother and sister who had been taken captive by hostile Indians. The conclusion of that search both pleased and shocked both of them. Hawk and Tug build a ranch in the middle of Indian country. Tug McGinn tells that story and of all the different and interesting characters that affected their lives along the way. This story treats the relationship between the white men and the Indians in a far different manner than the usual western stories. It chronicles the growth of the men's families. There is love, humor, pain, danger, death, and excitement along the way. Tug McGinn is a serious action-filled story that is sprinkled with a large portion of humor also. The Hook and the Badge Jim Lynch, 2008-04 A longshoreman has a clue about a murdered bartender from Charlestown, a section of Boston. Rather than endanger his family by going to the police, he joins the force, falls in love with a woman, and works his way up to detective. He uncovers secrets that point to the killer but must work quickly as the Irish Mafia seems to be looking for the same person.

Woodside, Pear Tree Grove P.O. Erna Brodber, 2004 Erna Brodber provides a lucid and literary social history of the village of Woodside in St. Mary, Jamaica, from slavery to 1944. The work is beautifully and sensitively informed by a variety of official sources, community meetings, and oral histories. The range of the sources interpreted deftly makes this a path-breaking book in the social history of Jamaica. Brodber's work is a pioneering contribution to the study of the ordinary people of Jamaica and can be used to stimulate and inform community development. The book will appeal to historians and anthropologists, Africans of the diaspora, and general readers. This work is the creative expression of the love affair between myself and the village in which I was born and raised. Woodside, Pear Tree Grove P.O. combines the academic approach with fiction to produce a world in which the reader can walk a world he can claim because his story has been used to make a community tale grounded in orthodox historical facts. Erna Brodber The Junior Republic Citizen, 1898 Woodside Farm Mrs. W. K. Clifford, 1902 Drinks All Round Kevin Drinkell, 2010-10-25 Kevin Drinkell has always put himself in the firing line. Now he lifts the lid on his rollercoaster life in football as a striker, manager, and now as a top football agent. Drinks was one of the most sought-after talents in the British game and reveals for the first time how Grimsby Town blocked his move to some of England's biggest clubs, his goalscoring exploits at Norwich, how he knocked back Manchester United, and his anger at being denied a move to Terry Venables' Spurs. He then headed north and joined Souness Rangers' revolution until the controversial arrival of Mo Johnston. Despite ending the season as the SPL's top scorer, Drinks decided to leave Rangers, a move which was to become one of the biggest regrets of his career. Kevin then headed for Coventry but his time at Highfield Road ended in disappointment, which came to a head when he went to war with his friend and former Rangers team mate Terry Butcher. The veteran returned to Scotland to make his mark with Falkirk and Stirling and to begin life in football management and as a top football agent. Contemporary Authors New Revision Series, 2005 A biographical and
