

What is a Success Story?

A Success Story shows how the program or intervention has made a difference in people's lives. It describes positive change and benefits.

Success Story Vs Impact Statement

- ❖ Strictly, a Success Story is a narrative description of the program. It sets a scene, tells a story and documents how programming made a difference. A success story should be concise -- usually 500 words or less.
- ❖ An Impact Statement is much shorter – 75 words or less. It focuses on who benefited and how. It uses numeric or narrative data to show value
- ❖ The JI Success Story merges the two: focuses on the beneficiaries, how they benefited and showcases the program intervention and how it has made a difference. (150 words & Photograph for JI II Quarterly reporting)
