The Murphy Stories:

The Murphy Stories Mark Costello, 1973 Roman The Murphy Stories Mark Costello, 1973 Roman Middle Murphy Mark Costello, 1993 These stories mark the return of Mark Costello's now legendary creation Michael Murphy the character who first appeared in the acclaimed collection The Murphy Stories Joyce Carol Oates wrote in the Washington Post Book World Murphy is a Midwestern cousin of Donlevy's Ginger Man but much more human and troubled It is a remarkable achievement the presentation of a complex suffering self-conscious and very lyric personality as he endures his own being

The Murphy's Janice K. Jarosz, 2011-05 It was a distant cousin's personal manuscript that led Janice to write The Murphy's Always wondering about her Irish ancestors on her mother's side Janice spent the past three years trying to find them and bring them back to life for other family members to meet get to know and maybe lead to a better understanding of each other as well With most of her ancestors gone she focused her search on town records newspaper articles fragments of notes and pictures left behind by family members Now that the Irish have been brought back to life through words and pictures she believes the Murphy's are hopefully resting in peace

The Mischief of the Murphy Brothers Doria J. Murphy, 2010-05-17 The Mischief of the Murphy Brothers Seamus Brother Liam Is Born is a heartwarming story written to be shared with your children as you prepare them for welcoming a new child into your family Seamus the first born son is excited about the arrival of his baby brother and is allowed to participate in the unique experience of being present at his brother's birth My first story was completely inspired by the amazing experience my family underwent with the birth of my second son We knew that he would make our family complete and we believed firmly that we should all be there to share it

Modern Irish-American Fiction Daniel J. Casey, Robert E. Rhodes, 1989-07-01 Reflected in these writings from twenty one Irish Americans are the themes common to all immigrant literature but from the author's own ethnic point of view The struggle for success forms the underlying structure in the stories by O'Hara Curran and McCarthy and the changing values the New World imposes on the individual are seen in Edwin O'Connor's Grand Day for Mr Garvey Irish wit and black humor pepper all the stories as represented by Dunn's bartender philosopher Dooley and Donlevy's Fairy Tale of New York Catholicism is omnipresent and is often characterized by the priest as in Fitzgerald's Benediction Power's Bill and Flaherty's Fogarty Themes that have an immense effect on the characters' relationships are their difficulties in communicating with one another which Gill captures succinctly in The Cemetery and the repositioning of gender roles so evident in Cullinan's Life After Death and in Costello's Murphy's Xmas Finally there are the intense often contradictory feelings the characters have toward their homeland Hamill's Gift illustrates the desire to rid Ireland of British rule Gordon's neighborhood shows the immigrants' embarrassment over their origins Editors Casey and Rhodes have organized these pieces chronologically beginning at the turn of the century Thus the selections illustrate the progression of Irish American literature and also fulfill the word of William Kennedy who said of his own writing those who came before helped to show me how to turn experience
