Torah In Motion:

Judaism in Motion Sibylle Lustenberger, 2020-11-17 In Israel where the Orthodox rabbinate wields historically sanctioned influence over the legal definitions of marriage and parenthood same sex parenthood raises important questions such as what constitutes belonging to the national collective who has the authority to define the norms of reproduction and where the boundaries of Orthodox Judaism begin and end Judaism in Motion addresses these questions from a transgenerational perspective that pays heed to how religiously informed rules norms and practices of transferring material properties names and societal belonging are adopted and transformed It presents a detailed ethnographic account of the dynamic interaction between kinship religion and the state that complicates the commonly held assumption that places same sex parenthood in a radically secular sphere that stands in stark opposition to Orthodox Judaism Taking same sex parenthood as a prism through which society at large is reflected this volume further explores how transformations of societal structures take place and what flexibility and leeway exist in organized religions FCC Record United States. Federal Communications Commission, 2001

Exploring Religions in Motion Michael Pye, 2013-03-22 These two volumes present Pye's methodological theoretical and field based interests in the study of religions Pye understands the study of religions to be an international enterprise with roots in both European and East Asian culture This relates to his active role in the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR as a former General Secretary and President The work is presented in seven sections which could be used in teaching assignments The first volume begins with a lively introduction on Methodological Strategies followed by East Asian Starting Points a radical attempt to overcome Eurocentrism and Structures and Strategies which tackles globally significant institutional and ideological questions The second volume presents selected strands in the study of religions Comparing and Contrasting is followed by Tradition and Innovation including reference to specific new religions Transplantation and Syncretism is a definitive package on syncretism and includes new materials from South East Asia Finally Contextual Questions explores wider themes of identity plurality dialogue of religions religious education and peace These show how relevant the study of religions can be when it is distinctly and responsibly defined Torah in Motion Susan Freeman, JoAnne Tucker, 2014-06-10 Explore new ways of prayer and storytelling through Torah in Motion JoAnne Tucker and Susan Freeman both experienced in dance and Judaic studies tell the famous stories of the Torah through modern dance In this book they explain how they use dance to interpret Torah and creative ideas to consider when doing so Dance Midrash offers a new and contemporary form of prayer and expression uniting both young and old in dance and story
