Whose Human Rights:

Psychology and Law Colin Tredoux, 2005 The congruencies between psychology and law are explored in this collection of learning objectives exercises and reference material that addresses the intersection of these two disciplines In addition to practical topics such as crime and policing the detection of deception and truthfulness dangerousness and the risk of violence and the employment of the psychologist as expert witness it also discusses modern moral issues such as the role and treatment of child witnesses in legal proceedings investigative psychology and psychological profiling and the use of insanity and diminished capacity defenses

Human Rights from Exclusion to Inclusion: Principles and Practice Fons Coomans, Cees Flinterman, Fred Grünfeld, Ingrid Westendorp, Jan Willems, 2021-10-25 Professor Theo van Boven has made his mark in the field of human rights by writing a vast number of scholarly articles reports studies congress papers and the like covering many topics Most of his work has been published in law journals textbooks Festschriften and other sources Since not all of these publications are easily accessible it is the purpose of this anthology to bring together a selection of his writings from 1966 to 1998 The editors have focused on those subjects that played a major part during Theo van Boven's career and that are in their view the most interesting to the reader That is why this volume contains papers on such issues as the United Nations and its role as regards human rights racial discrimination the right to rehabilitation the international criminal tribunals the role of NGOs and many more The papers have been arranged in different groups under general headings Within each group articles dealing with the same subject have been put in chronological order A detailed bibliography covering most of Theo van Boven's publications is included in this book as an annex All through his work Theo van Boven displays his sound theoretical background as well as his enormous practical experience This combination makes his writings so attractive and compelling to read

Freedom from poverty as a human right: who owes what to the very poor? Pogge, Thomas, 2007-06-26 Presents fifteen essays by academics about the severe poverty that afflicts billions of human lives These essays seek to explain why freedom from poverty is a human right and what duties this right creates for the affluent

Challenges in International Human Rights Law Menno T. Kamminga, 2017-10-23 The main challenges within international human rights law are generally thought to be in the fields of transitional justice non state actors terrorism development poverty and environmental degradation This volume of articles not only covers these mainstream challenges but also a wider and more systematic range including justiciability of social and economic rights extraterritoriality health care and investment arbitration The key literature selected for this collection includes articles that have appeared in mainstream journals and books from leading publishers as well as papers that have appeared in lesser known journals hard to find books and UN documents Some of these are classic essays whilst others are more recent additions that reflect the current state of the debate The papers are put into context by a specially commissioned introduction by the volume editor This volume is an invaluable resource for human rights lawyers in search of the key literature in fields outside their own specialization as well
