Writings Of John:

Life and writings of John the apostle John Thompson (A.M., of Birkenhead.),1882 The Writings of John C. Marvin Pate,2011-01-04 The writings of John are some of the most foundational New Testament documents for today's Christians Most evangelical teaching about the life of Jesus begins with the Gospel of John and Christian teaching on the end times relies heavily on the book of Revelation Students pastors and lay learners need solid up to date resources like this book to responsibly study and understand John's writings C Marvin Pate addresses John's writings according to their logical divisions the Gospel of John the Johannine Epistles and Revelation Each section includes a thorough introduction to relevant interpretive issues including historical background cultural setting and theological context Pate presents a two fold historical setting for John's gospel encouraging readers to consider the text from the perspective of Jesus day and from John's situation in Asia Minor sixty years later He examines the Johannine epistles on issues like authorship audience and theological perspective For the Apocalypse Pate explores the challenges of John's first readers the nature of apocalyptic literature and the Roman imperial cult including as well an explanation of how the church has interpreted Revelation over the years With its thorough discussion textbook design and four color interior The Writings of John sets the standard for introductory texts on biblical books or collections The Book That John Wrote Earl F. Palmer,1999-09 The writings of John. The Gospel. The Epistles. The Apocalypse Marvin R. Vincent,1991 John and His Writings (Classic Reprint) D. A. Hayes,2015-07-14 Excerpt from John and His Writings At the close of our volume on Paul and His Epistles we said that John was the greatest theologian of the apostolic times and while we recognized that the Pauline influence had dominated the thought and life of the church at large and we believed that it ought to do so until the missionary and evangelistic work of the church was done we prophesied that then the Johannine theology would be the supreme influence in the days of the church's edification and consummation in love That prophecy indicates our estimate of the final position to be accorded the apostle John We believe that as the church grows in grace and becomes more and more like its Lord it will more and more agree with him that John is the disciple most worthy of its love There is a disposition at the present time with a certain class of writers to emphasize the dependence of John upon Paul and these writers try to make it appear that the author of the Johannine books was a disciple of Paul even more fully than he was a disciple of Jesus We believe that John always was a receptive soul and that he probably learned much from Paul as from every other strong personality with whom he came into contact but the supreme influence in all his more mature life was that of the Master For the most part he was one of the quiet in the land and he stood nearest to the Master and he saw deepest into the Master's spirit and truth and he meditated longest upon these things and in the end he formulated more fully than any other the essentials of the new faith and as far as he went we believe that he has spoken the final word in this field About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work
