"Verwisch die Spuren!": Bertolt Brecht's Work and Legacy, 2015-06-29 This volume presents a cross section of current Brecht studies reflecting a variety of approaches and perspectives ranging from detailed exegesis of particular texts to cultural criticism in the broadest sense It provides analyses of Brecht's work and investigates his pervasive influence in 20th century literature The studies collected here cover the whole of Brecht's career from the early one acter Kleinbürgerhochzeit of 1919 to the Sinn und Form years immediately preceding his death as well as his use of tradition and his legacy By way of redressing a tendency in Brecht reception to regard him mainly as a dramatist the volume covers novels poetry film photography journalism and theory as well as plays

Reading the Poetry of First Isaiah J. Blake Couey, 2015-09-03 Reading the Poetry of First Isaiah provides a literary and historical study of the prophetic poetry of First Isaiah an underappreciated but highly sophisticated collection of poems in the Hebrew Bible Informed by recent developments in biblical studies and broader trends in the study of poetry Dr J Blake Couey articulates a fresh account of Biblical Hebrew poetry and argues that careful attention to poetic style is crucial for the interpretation of these texts Discussing lineation he explains that lines serve important rhetorical functions in First Isaiah but the absence of lineated manuscripts from antiquity makes it necessary to defend proposed line divisions using criteria such as parallelism rhythm and syntax He examines poetic structure and highlights that parallelism and enjambment create a sense of progression between individual lines which are tightly joined to form couplets triplets quatrains and occasionally even longer groups Later Dr Couey treats imagery and metaphor in First Isaiah A striking variety of images most notably agricultural and animal imagery appear in diverse contexts in these poems often with rich figurative significance

David Bergelson's Strange New World Harriet Murav, 2019-02-01 David Bergelson 1884-1952 emerged as a major literary figure who wrote in Yiddish before WWI He was one of the founders of the Kiev Kultur Lige and his work was at the center of the Yiddish speaking world of the time He was well known for creating characters who often felt the painful after effects of the past and the clumsiness of bodies stumbling through the actions of daily life as their familiar worlds crumbled around them In this contemporary assessment of Bergelson and his fiction Harriet Murav focuses on untimeliness anachronism and warped temporality as an emotional sensory existential and historical background to Bergelson's work and world Murav grapples with the great modern theorists of time and memory especially Henri Bergson Sigmund Freud and Walter Benjamin to present Bergelson as an integral part of the philosophical and artistic experiments political and technological changes and cultural context of Russian and Yiddish modernism that marked his age As a comparative and interdisciplinary study of Yiddish literature and Jewish culture this work adds a new ethnic dimension to understandings of the turbulent birth of modernism
