Munsey's Magazine, 1924 Reverberations of Culture Shane Breaux, 2026-02-25 This book examines musical variety clowns and the broad array of racial and ethnic impersonations they performed on four distinct touring circuits and apparatuses the African American Theatre Owners Booking Association TOBA the Chinese American so called Chop Suey Circuit the Mexican and Mexican American carpas tours and Country American barn dances This book explores the overlooked history of touring clown performers in early twentieth century musical variety shows addressing both their historical marginalization and their significant impact on popular entertainment By examining these performers widespread presences both on and off stage the work challenges traditional historical narratives that have

excluded diverse voices particularly women and non white performers The research corrects a common misconception that racial impersonation in musical variety was exclusively the domain of white male performers Instead it reveals how performers and managers from various backgrounds actively challenged prevailing ideas about American identity whiteness and cultural inclusion Through this lens the book demonstrates that musical comedy performance and management were not exclusively white privileges but rather spaces where diverse artists contributed significantly to early twentieth century entertainment culture and beyond This book will be of great interest to students and scholars interested in US musical variety racial and national identity and comedy
