Soldier's Heart Elizabeth D. Samet, 2007-10-16 A West Point English professor discusses teaching literature to young men and women preparing for war describing the changes that have occurred since September 11 what it means to be a civilian teaching at a military academy and what books and movies mean to her students A Soldier's Heart Raynold A. Gauvin, 2022-08-17 A Soldier's Heart is a moving and expansive memoir by Vietnam Veteran Ray Gauvin The story takes us from the French Ghetto of Presque Isle Maine and the descendants of the Acadians to military bases all over the country and to Vietnam and back Gauvin takes an unflinching look at life on the ground in Saigon and the horrors of the unusual and classified military posting of WDMET The ingenuity and work ethic he built to help support his family as a kid got him through both the loss of his father and the war But afterwards pushing himself to the edge with striving and responsibility became a compulsion that staved off the nightmare Silent about the classified mission of WDMET even to his family Gauvin wrestled on his own with the effects of Agent Orange and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder He became an entrepreneur a businessman and a philanthropist but PTSD kept him embroiled in an internal battle between his obsession to work his drive for success a search for peace of mind and thoughts of suicide But after fifty years of running from the past he turned about face and began the journey of remembering and healing This book is a must read for anyone seeking an inside look at one man's road to Vietnam and WDMET It also gives incredible insight into the history of francophone communities in Northern Maine The Soldier's Heart and the Effort Syndrome Sir Thomas Lewis, 1919 The Soldier's heart and the effort syndrome Sir Thomas Lewis, 1920 A Soldier's Heart Gary Paulsen, 1998-01 War Supplement Fielding Hudson Garrison, Frank J. combat trauma is written by or for treatment professionals and is not widely read by vets Most veteran writings are in the nature of war stories which capture the actual combat experience but not the emotional legacy of trauma its effect upon their lives or upon their families In war soldiers sailors airmen and Marines quickly learn to count on each other for survival Vets often don t believe that anyone including family and treatment professionals who hasn t endured combat can understand or help them deal with the effects of combat trauma Veterans often have difficulty describing their experiences and feelings to family and friends Family members frequently don t know how to respond in ways the veteran will accept The editors a team of clinicians a veteran recovered from PTSD and his spouse recognized the need for a book written by veterans and family members for vets and their families that would help survivors veteran and family alike cope with the effects of combat trauma in their lives Working as a team clinicians formed a non profit organization The National Trauma Institute at Baltimore whose mission is to advocate for those experiencing stress related traumas their families and clinicians working with these individuals The Institute s first project is this book Page 6 7 The Photographic History of the Civil War ...: Soldier life, secret service Francis Trevelyan Miller,1911 Good Health ,1917 Soldier's Heart William Schroder,Ronald Dawe,2007-07-30 To fully explore the lifelong effects of war trauma in the 20th century the focus must be on Vietnam veterans explain Schroder and Dawe both Vietnam veterans themselves and respectively now a writer businessman and a mental health counselor Profound statements on the human condition the narratives of the five featured veterans convey the symptoms of PTSD in non technical language offering emotional and intellectual comfort to millions of Americans whose relatives and friends have served the country in time of war This book which also includes a glossary of military terms will be of interest to veterans and their families and friends as well as to counselors therapists psychologists veteran care workers and students of studies in trauma psychopathology and treatment These are more than war stories because for these veterans the lingering war is internal and it may never end BOOK JACKET The Medical World ,1918 Transactions of the American Climatological and Clinical Association American Climatological and Clinical Association,1923 Modern medicine Julius L.
