Suntharalingam, 2015-05-14 Among the stories in these adaptations are the story of the disillusioned cat, the patient poet who rewards water with its half share in the adulterated milk trade, human avarice gets reined in by God, the best disciple is more discerning than the rest, can remove inertia with a little bit of pain, learn as you grow, learning from all sources, even lower animals, a lady capable of plucking the tiger's hair can easily woo her husband, you tend to ape your companions, seed needs time to germinate, verbal diarrhea of the paraphraser, lazy sons hit the treasure trove, necessity is the mother of action, weak legs more useful than beautiful antlers, unobserved behavior is the index to character, quick wit can outwit the dull wit, Grandpa knows better, revenge is like strewn cotton wool, the bride's father is always at the receiving end. There are 3 experiences of Swami Vivekananda, stories of Akbar's confidante Birbal, and that other Court Jester, Shrewd way to settle usurious loans, poetic justice to an errant prince, if a bag of soil is heavy, how about those of the arrogated lands. The focus is on narration with the intention of imparting English language skills, enhancing word power, and even style of presentation, and inculcating the reading habit. What is lacking is the reading material in English for students whose mother tongue is other than English. The desire to read is being encouraged by narrating stories from familiar background so that the reader need not labour to understand the contents, and also the language simultaneously. The latter is made easier through known or familiar stories. Intention to emphasize is to provide easily understood narratives to help the reader to acquire proficiency in English and go forward in enhancing one's language skills.
