Queering Polishness in Polish Theatre Since 2005 Jonas Vanderschueren,2024-08-12 Theatre

has long been an art form at the centre of public life in Poland Whether it is the self professed poet prophets of the Romantic era or the dissident theatre makers working under the strictures of state socialism the art form has played a vital role in the development of Polish culture and politics in the context of shifting foreign occupations This book explores the relationship between contemporary Polish theatre makers and contemporary notions of Polishness and argues that queer theory and specifically a Polish appropriation of queer theory can be a crucial element to better understand the politicality of the contemporary Polish theatre field It does this by focusing on critical theatre productions which are produced at the margins of the Polish theatre field a choice which has been made as the field is dominated by traditional drama theatres which reproduce a Polish variation on the Western canon This makes smaller atypical and independent theatre productions all the more significant as they signify a refusal to continue the traditional role of the Polish theatre field in reproducing the canon of Polish Romanticism As such the book argues that contemporary Polish theatre has been marked by a struggle between those building performances and state authorities that see those creations as a threat to their authority

Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice Matthew Butcher, Megan O'Shea, 2020-11-27 Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice presents a selection of essays architectural experiments and works that explore the diversity within the fields of contemporary architectural practice and discourse Specific in this selection is the question of how and why architecture can and should manifest in a critical and reflective capacity as well as to examine how the discipline currently resonates with contemporary art practice It does so by reflecting on the first 10 years of the architectural journal P E A R 2009 to 2019 The volume argues that the initial aims of the journal to explore and celebrate the myriad forms through which architecture can exist are now more relevant than ever to contemporary architectural discourse and practice Included in the volume are architectural practitioners design researchers artists architectural theorists historians journalists curators and a paleobiologist all of whom contributed to the first seven issues of the journal Here they provide a unique presentation of architectural discourse and practice that seeks to test new ground while forming distinct relationships to recent and more longstanding historical legacies Praise for Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice The story told by the authors of this work can thus be considered as the central tool of an architectural transgression Critique d art
