The Balinese:

The Balinese Hugh Mabbett, 2001 The Changing World of Bali Leo Howe, 2006-06-07 The glossy guide book image of Bali is of a timeless paradise whose people are devoutly religious and artistically gifted However a hundred years of colonialism war and Indonesian independence and tourism have produced both modernizing changes and created an image of Bali as traditional Incorporating up to date ethnographic field work the book investigates the myriad of ways in which the Balinese has responded to the influx of outside influence The book focuses on the fascinating interrelationship between tourism economy culture and religion in Bali painting a twenty first century picture of the Balinese In documenting these diverse changes Howe critically assesses some of the work of Bali s most famous ethnographer Clifford Geertz and demonstrates the importance of a historically grounded and broadly contextualized approach to the analysis of a complex society Seeking the Asian Face of Jesus Chris Sugden, 1997 Tourism in Bali and the Challenge of Sustainable Development Sylvine Pickel-Chevalier, 2018-01-23 This work offers a cross analysis of the development of tourism in Bali combining international and intercultural from Indonesian French Australian and English researchers transdisciplinary and inter generational research It questions the capacity of tourism to be a vector of sustainable development by analyzing its various social economic and environmental effects within Balinese society As such it represents not only a great research tool but a fantastic teaching aid Each chapter comes with its own bibliography and thus acts as a standalone case study while making a contribution to the overall thrust of the book Netherlands East Indies and British Malaya John A. peoples of Java and Bali of the idea of religion through a dialogic process of indigenization of universalist religions and universalization of indigenous religions It looks at the tension that exists between proponents of local world views and indigenous belief systems and those who deny those local traditions as qualifying as a religion This tension plays a leading part in the construction of an Indonesian religious identity recognized by the state The book is of interest to students and scholars of Southeast Asia religious studies and the anthropology and sociology of religion The Missionary Review ,1928
