The Craft Of Fiction:

The Craft of Fiction Percy Lubbock,1921      The Craft of Fiction Percy Lubbock,2017-06-04 Percy Lubbock's 1921 volume was one of the first major works of literary criticism to focus on the novel as a form. Literary criticism itself was in its infancy but more importantly the novel seemed a less notable subject for criticism at the time than poetry and drama. Lubbock's book is not just an argument about fiction but for fiction an attempt to provide a rationale for the novel as a high art form. Lubbock's book didn't just influence critics it was also a spur to contemporary novelists. Virginia Woolf vacillated between echoing and condemning his ideas. Woolf's lengthiest engagement with Lubbock was her 1922 essay On Re-reading Novels which primarily praises and extends Lubbock's argument. This like E. M. Forster's Aspects of the Novel is an essential work of criticism. This is the book recommended by Graham Greene in his autobiography. He had studied this book inside out before embarking on his illustrious career. I suppose no other stamp of approval is needed after that.      Faulkner and the Craft of Fiction Doreen Fowler,Ann J. Abadie,2010-01-06 In 1944 William Faulkner wrote to Malcolm Cowley I'm telling the same story over and over which is myself and the world. That's all a writer ever does he tells his own biography in a thousand different terms. With these words Faulkner suggests that what changes in the course of his prolific novel writing career is not so much the content but the style the thousand different terms of his fiction. The essays in Faulkner and the Craft of Fiction first presented at the 1987 Faulkner and Yoknapatawpha Conference at the University of Mississippi focus on Faulkner's narrative inventiveness on how Faulkner like his character Benjy in The Sound and the Fury relentlessly kept trying to say. The contributors' authorities on Faulkner's narrative offer a wide variety of critical approaches to Faulkner's fiction writing process. Cleanth Brooks for example applies the strategies of New Criticism to Faulkner's rendering of the heroic and pastoral modes. Judith L. Sensibar attempts to locate biographical sources for repeated Faulknerian paradigms and Philip M. Weinstein draws on the theories of the Marxist Althusser and the French psychoanalyst Lacan. The topics examined are similarly wide ranging.      The Craft of Fiction Percy Lubbock,2017-05-26 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. Michael Kardos focuses on technique and presents fiction writing as a teachable and learnable art With an organization built on methods and process rather than traditional literary elements Kardos helps students begin their stories write strong scenes use images and detail revise for aesthetics and mechanics and finish and polish their own stories He delivers clear instruction effective examples and assignments that build toward finished work in a tone reviewers praise as pitch perfect A brief fiction anthology at the back of the book of 15 works that Kardos draws on in his instruction provides stories that students will love to be inspired by

The Craft of Fiction Bill Knott,1983 The Modern Library Writer's Workshop Stephen Koch,2003-04-01 Make your characters want something right away even if it s only a glass of water Characters paralyzed by the meaninglessness of modern life still have to drink water from time to time Kurt Vonnegut The cat sat on the mat is not the beginning of a story but the cat sat on the dog s mat is John Le Carr Nothing is more inspiring for a beginning writer than listening to masters of the craft talk about the writing life But if you can t get Vladimir Nabokov Virginia Woolf and Gabriel Garc a M rquez together at the Algonquin The Modern Library Writer s Workshop gives you the next best thing Stephen Koch former chair of Columbia University s graduate creative writing program presents a unique guide to the craft of fiction Along with his own lucid observations and commonsense techniques he weaves together wisdom advice and inspiring commentary from some of our greatest writers Taking you from the moment of inspiration keep a notebook with you at all times to writing a first draft do it quickly you can always revise later to figuring out a plot plot always serves the story not vice versa Koch is a benevolent mentor glad to dispense sound advice when you need it most The Modern Library Writer s Workshop belongs on every writer s shelf to be picked up and pored over for those moments when the muse needs a little help finding her way

Zola and the Craft of Fiction Robert Lethbridge,Terry Keefe,1990 This is the first full length stufy of Zola s practice as a novelist Although Zola s literary achievement has been revalued in the last 25 years critical attention has been concentrated on the contrast between his work s realistic dimension and its poetic power Now the balance is redressed by this study of Zola as a craftstman Most of the ten specially commissioned chapters in this book are concerned with its great saga of Les Rougon Macquart In each Zola s techniques are related to problems on genre and representation and several relate his techniques to those used in contemporary melodrama journalism and impressionist painting

The Craft of Fiction Percy Lubbock, 2013-01-19 The Craft of Fiction is an important Criticism work by essayist and literary critic Percy Lubbock Lubbock's outlook in this publication is an obvious extension to that of Henry James and he works to illustrate the craft by referencing many important and classic novels including Leo Tolstoy's Anna Karenina Gustave Flaubert's Madame Bovary and Henry James The Ambassadors The Craft of Fiction is highly recommended for those who enjoy literary criticism works and also for those who are interested in the key writings of Percy Lubbock The Philosophy of Fiction Grant Martin Overton, 1928 The Emotional Craft of Fiction Donald Maass, 2016-12-30 Engage Your Readers with Emotion While writers might disagree over showing versus telling or plotting versus pantsing none would argue this If you want to write strong fiction you must make your readers feel The reader's experience must be an emotional journey of its own one as involving as your characters struggles discoveries and triumphs are for you That's where The Emotional Craft of Fiction comes in Veteran literary agent and expert fiction instructor Donald Maass shows you how to use story to provoke a visceral and emotional experience in readers Topics covered include emotional modes of writing beyond showing versus telling your story's emotional world moral stakes connecting the inner and outer journeys plot as emotional opportunities invoking higher emotions symbols and emotional language cascading change story as emotional mirror positive spirit and magnanimous writing the hidden current that makes stories move Readers can simply read a novel or they can experience it The Emotional Craft of Fiction shows you how to make that happen The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 7, Modernism and the New Criticism George Alexander Kennedy, 1989 This volume of The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism first published in 2000 provides a thorough account of the critical tradition emerging with the modernist and avant garde writers of the early twentieth century Eliot Pound Stein Yeats continuing with the New Critics Richards Empson Burke Winters and feeding into the influential work of Leavis Trilling and others who helped form the modern institutions of literary culture The core period covered is 1910-60 but explicit connections are made with nineteenth century traditions and there is discussion of the implications of modernism and the New Criticism for our own time with its inherited formalism anti sentimentalism and astringency of tone The book provides a companion to the other twentieth century volumes of The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism and offers a systematic and stimulating coverage of the development of the key literary critical movements with chapters on groups and genres as well as on individual critics Manual of the Art of Fiction Clayton Meeker Hamilton, 1918 The Craft of Fiction - Primary Source Edition Percy Lubbock, 2014-02-24 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning
