The Liberating Power Of Symbols:

The Liberating Power of Symbols Jürgen Habermas, 2001 Habermas engages with a wide range of twentieth century thinkers including theologian Johann Baptist Metz and Finnish philosopher Georg Henrik von Wright

The Liberating Power of Symbols Jürgen Habermas, 2001 Ernst Cassirer Edward Skidelsky, 2008 A biography of the German Jewish philosopher Ernst Cassirer 1874-1945 a leading figure on the Weimar intellectual scene and one of the last and finest representatives of the liberal idealist tradition It traces the development of Cassirer's thought in its historical and intellectual setting

Continental Divide Peter E. Gordon, 2012-04-02 In the spring of 1929 Martin Heidegger and Ernst Cassirer met for a public conversation in Davos Switzerland They were arguably the most important thinkers in Europe and their exchange touched upon the most urgent questions in the history of philosophy What is human finitude What is objectivity What is culture What is truth Over the last eighty years the Davos encounter has acquired an allegorical significance as if it marked an ultimate and irreparable rupture in twentieth century Continental thought Here in a reconstruction at once historical and philosophical Peter Gordon reexamines the conversation its origins and its aftermath resuscitating an event that has become entombed in its own mythology Through a close and painstaking analysis Gordon dissects the exchange itself to reveal that it was at core a philosophical disagreement over what it means to be human But Gordon also shows how the life and work of these two philosophers remained closely intertwined Their disagreement can be understood only if we appreciate their common point of departure as thinkers of the German interwar crisis an era of rebellion that touched all of the major philosophical movements of the day life philosophy philosophical anthropology neo-Kantianism phenomenology and existentialism As Gordon explains the Davos debate would continue to both inspire and provoke well after the two men had gone their separate ways It remains even today a touchstone of philosophical memory This clear riveting book will be of great interest not only to philosophers and to historians of philosophy but also to anyone interested in the great intellectual ferment of Europe's interwar years

Under the Spell of Freedom Hans Joas, 2024 In Under the Spell of Freedom Hans Joas deconstructs the grand Hegelian narrative of human history as the self-realization of the idea of freedom setting as a counterpart the sketches of a theory of the emergence of moral universalism He takes the classical views of Hegel and his emphasis on the role of Protestant Christianity and the extremely negative views about Christianity in the work of the philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche to elaborate on this new understanding of religion and freedom which encompasses a range of intellectual traditions and avoids Eurocentrism Joas answers the empirical question of when where why and how such a moral universalism emerged and developed

The Philosophy of Susanne Langer Adrienne Dengerink Chaplin, 2019-10-17 This book is a comprehensive study of one of the most insightful and fertile but also most neglected philosophers of the twentieth century Susanne Langer Failure to recognise Langer's seminal philosophical sources has led to frequent misinterpretations and misunderstandings of her unique philosophical thought Beginning with an overview of Langer's life and education this study provides a much needed explanation of how Langer's thinking was shaped by four seminal sources her mentors Henry Sheffer and Alfred North Whitehead and the European philosophers Ernst Cassirer and Ludwig Wittgenstein Langer's ability to unite seemingly disparate fields such logic art and embodied cognition around the notion of symbolic form places aesthetics not at the margins of philosophy but at its very centre By locating Langer's work in the broader context of major developments in twentieth century European and American philosophy Dengerink Chaplin shows how she was often ahead of her time Shedding new light on Langer as an American philosopher whose innovative thought crosses the customary boundaries between analytic and continental philosophy this book confirms why she continues to have relevance today Identities in Transition Georgina Tsolidis,2020-05-06 The Politics of Historical Interpretation Jeffrey Andrew Barash,2025-09-08 This book focuses on political presuppositions animating modern historical reflection in Germany that underwent sharp radicalization in the post World War I context of the Weimar Republic It is in this context that a novel polemical use of political concepts nourished by radical forms of reflection on the historical character of human existence brought to the fore interpretations of collective mentalities or group perspectives that crystallized in specific conceptions of ideology and of political myth By centering analysis on the insight of a variety of twentieth century thinkers whose works are of central importance for the elucidation of this topic the author examines different interpretations of the role of reflection on human historicity in the elaboration of this novel polemical use of political concepts Beyond an historical inquiry into this topic this work aims to provide a theoretical investigation to elucidate the complex range of significations of the concepts of ideology and of political myth the province of each of these concepts in the delineation of group perspectives and the problematic legacy that the polemical use of these concepts has bequeathed to the contemporary world The Christian Century,1922 A Theological Odyssey John W. De Gruchy,2014-09-01 John de Gruchy is one of the greatest and most respected South African theologians of the past five decades His work has left an indelible mark on both the South African and international theological landscapes In this book he describes his theological journey revisiting core themes periods and sources This is an enriching read as De Gruchy engages with some of the greatest theologians in the history of the church notably John Calvin Karl Barth Karl Rahner Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Reinhold Niebuhr as well as with a wide selection of his fellow South African theologians Cas Wepener Transactions of the ... Annual Congress of the Federation of European Sections of the Theosophical Society Federation of European Sections of the Theosophical Society,Federation of European Sections of the Theosophical Society. Congress,1906 The Persistence of Myth as Symbolic Form Paul Bishop,Roger H. Stephenson,2008 As a central part of his philosophy of symbolic forms as a form of religious expression and as a political problematic the question of myth belongs at the heart of Ernst Cassirer's intellectual enterprise Using a variety of methodological and conceptual approaches these papers examine the persistence of myth as a symbolic form from a variety of perspectives philosophical anthropological psychological political and historico cultural In its way each paper attempts in

Cassirer's phrase to see the adversary face to face Re-presenting the Good Society Maeve Cooke, 2006 A proposal for negotiating the tension between an anti authoritarian impulse and a guiding idea of context transcending validity in critical social theory Contemporary critical social theories face the question of how to justify the ideas of the good society that guide their critical analyses Traditionally these more or less determinate ideas of the good society were held to be independent of their specific sociocultural context and historical epoch Today such a concept of context transcending validity is not easy to defend the linguistic turn of Western philosophy signals the widespread acceptance of the view that ideas of knowledge and validity are always mediated linguistically and that language is conditioned by history and context In Re Presenting the Good Society Maeve Cooke addresses the justificatory dilemma facing critical social theories how to maintain an idea of context transcending validity without violating anti authoritarian impulses In doing so she not only clarifies the issues and positions taken by other theorists including Richard Rorty Jürgen Habermas Axel Honneth and Judith Butler but also offers her own original and thought provoking analysis of context transcending validity Because the tension between an anti authoritarian impulse and a guiding idea of context transcending validity is today an integral part of critical social theory Cooke argues that it should be negotiated rather than eliminated Her proposal for a concept of context transcending validity has as its central claim that we should conceive of the good society as re presented in particular constitutively inadequate representations of it These re presentations are Cooke argues provocatively regulative ideas that have an imaginary fictive character Comptes Rendus Philosophiques ,2009 Figures D'Europe Luisa Passerini, European University Institute, 2003 In this publication scholars from various European countries address the symbolic deficit of the EU and the continent as a whole They examine the history and meanings of various myths surrounding Europe as well as discussing the cultural shift that will have to occur in order to give rise to a multicultural identity Resurrection Pheme Perkins, 1984 This book discusses the exegetical and historical analysis of the first century affirmation of resurrection in an attempt to recover what might have been meant by such language in its originating context It will then follow the resurrection traditions into the debates of the second century since they largely set the tone for what later generations of Christians would take from the insights and formulations of the first century The final two chapters will sketch the state of resurrection in some quarters of contemporary philosophy and theology p 18 19 The Journal of Philosophy ,2001 Key Sociological Thinkers Rob Stones, 2007-11-06 The second edition of this popular and established text provides a comprehensive guide to 23 of the most influential thinkers in sociology Written by leading academics in the field Key Sociological Thinkers 2e provides a clear and contextualized introduction to classical and contemporary theory Each chapter offers an insightful assessment of a different theorist exploring their lives works and legacies Drawing upon examples from the everyday world an innovative Seeing Things Differently section in every chapter demonstrates how theoretical ideas can be used to illuminate aspects of social life in new ways Included in this new edition Four new chapters looking at Theodor Adorno
