Through The Landscape Of Faith:

Through the Landscape of Faith Lucy Bregman, 1986-01-01 Looks at the role of baptism in the spiritual life of a Christian describes the ways a Christian's life is shaped by his beliefs and discusses the redemption of the past

The Landscape of Faith Alister McGrath, 2018-02-15 At Oxford University in the 1970s Alister McGrath faced a crisis when he realized that his scientific atheism made less sense of reality than the big picture offered by Christianity A reluctant convert he was astonished by the delight he found in exploring a previously unknown world of ideas Crucial to his understanding have been the Christian Creeds which he regards as maps to the landscape of faith His hope in this volume is that we too may grasp comprehensively the treasure to which they point the living God who is the ground of our existence Jesus Christ who journeys with us the Holy Spirit who offers us reassurance and affirmation on the way Drawing on the theology of popular writers like C S Lewis G K Chesterton and Dorothy L Sayers and full of stories and illustrations this vivid portrayal of the imaginative power and vision of Christianity will prove invaluable to clergy church leaders theological students and all who long to expand their understanding and love of God

Through Science to Faith Newman Smyth, 1902

Biology Through the Eyes of Faith Richard Wright, 2013-04-23 Stressing the biblical message of stewardship biologist Richard T Wright celebrates the study of God's creation and examines the interaction of the life sciences with society in medicine genetics and the environment The author brings a biblical perspective to theories on origins contrasting creationism intelligent design and evolution Highlighting the unique nature of biology and its interaction with Christian thought Wright demonstrates that Christian stewardship can be the key to a sustainable future This comprehensive work one of a series cosponsored by the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities addresses the needs of the Christian student of biology to align science and faith It demonstrates that the study of biology penetrates to the core of human existence and has much to contribute to the construction of a consistent Christian worldview Richard T Wright holds a Ph D in biology from Harvard University and is professor emeritus of biology at Gordon College in Wenham Massachusetts He is the author of numerous scholarly articles and is widely sought as a lecturer in biology and ecology

Faith Sharon Follows, 2024-03-12 Life has never been easy for Faith Losing her mother at a young age Faith has had to fend for herself and hasn't made the best decisions She decides to escape an abusive relationship by renting a vacation house in beautiful Prince Edward Island While Faith chooses to forget about him and the mediocre life she's been living karma will have its revenge on him Better than she had ever dreamt up in her mind Faith is determined to live an authentic life and discover who she truly wants to be surrounded by the most beautiful vistas she's ever seen She's immediately drawn to the beaches collecting her precious sea glass that reminds her of her mother On one occasion she meets a dashing stranger who saves her flyaway hat There is an instant connection for both her and Archer and after parting they become obsessed with finding one another once again Fate steps in and Faith finds her mystery man and he's even more wonderful than she could have imagined He encourages her to believe in herself and she can't believe she's found the one. Just when Faith thinks she is finally on the right path, her past comes back to haunt her and drags her back down into the depths of despair. An emotion she had hoped would never touch her heart again. Perhaps fate had other plans for her. Was she ever going to get her happily ever after? She would have to wait and see, along with doing her best on the only journey anyone ever has. Or so she thought.

Faith, Politics, and Power Rebecca Sager, 2010-01-15. During the 2000 presidential campaign, George W. Bush made faith-based social services one of the centerpieces of his domestic agenda. These faith-based initiatives, supporters argued, would reduce poverty, ease the strain on an overburdened welfare system, and prove more effective than government programs. Opponents feared rampant proselytizing with government funds. Instead, these practices created a system in which neither the greatest hopes of its supporters nor the greatest fears of its opponents have been realized. The product of five years of in-depth research, Rebecca Sager's Faith, Politics, and Power offers a systematic examination of where and how these programs were implemented, arguing that faith-based initiatives strayed from supporters' original aim of helping the poor and instead were used as tools to gain political power by the Republican Party and the conservative evangelical movement.

The National Magazine, 1908. Faith and Freedom Stopford Augustus Brooke, 1881. The Fight of Faith Stopford Augustus Brooke, 1878.
