

SURVIVING THE EVACUATION

UNSAFE HAVEN

A woman in a grey suit walks away from the viewer down a dirt path that leads towards a large stone castle perched on a cliff in the distance. The landscape is green and hazy, with several birds flying in the sky. In the foreground, a sign on a wooden post stands on the left side of the path. The sign has a white background with black text and a red mark. The overall scene is atmospheric and mysterious.

Unsafe Haven:

Unsafe Haven Karen McElrath, 2000 For almost two hundred years the United States has been a safe haven for Irish political prisoners seeking refuge More recently however the US government has sought deportation extradition and prosecution to exclude Irish republicans from the country In the first book to focus on the relationship between these tools of exclusion and US foreign policy Karen McElrath examines why this change has come about and the extent to which the granting of political asylum in the US is influenced by relations with Britain and other countries Karen McElrath questions US government attempts to portray an impartial role in the Irish conflict arguing that historical and contemporary evidence reveals otherwise She shows that far from being a neutral process the success of bids for political asylum often depends on the relationship between the US and the government of the applicant s country of origin Drawing on exclusive interviews with Irish Republicans who have faced deportation or extradition from the United States or who have been prosecuted in the US for politically motivated offences McElrath explores the links between deportation and extradition outcomes and foreign policy issues The tools of exclusion are defined in their historical context and the history of US extradition law is described with particular focus on the treaties with Britain McElrath also examines the offences for which Irish and Irish American Republicans have been charged discusses the various levels of support for Irish political prisoners in the US and summarises the findings by international human rights organisations

Gilbert* William Schwenck Gilbert,1876 Promoting Efficiency in Jurisprudence and Constitutional Development in Africa Azubike Onuora-Oguno,2022-11-14 This book eulogises a personality that has constructed a formidable scholarly and personal legacy that future generations of legal practitioners and socio legal scholars in Africa should look to for guidance and inspiration Divided into three parts the book deals with a longstanding legal practice and scholarship on the role of international law and institutions Additionally the book discussed roles of an African scholar and practitioner to advance socio economic and cultural rights across the continent through contextualised progressive adjudication and from a gendered perspective Finally the book examined the importance of early childhood education and legal education alike the role of the courts in redressing these concerns and the need for greater inclusion of Afro and queer sensitive pedagogies and perspectives Contributors to the book address the role of schools in redressing systemic marginalisation including stigmatisation based on disability and efforts to translate their rights as prescribed in national constitutions and international legal instruments The methodology encompasses a TWAIL approach and the call to revisit orthodox approaches to legal scholarship

Original Plays. Second Series William Schwenck Gilbert,1881 Bulletin Inter-Municipal Research Committee,1904 The Minor Prophets Edward Bouverie Pusey,1891 Post-Arab Spring Narratives Abida Younas,2023-04-15 This book looks at eight post Arab Spring novels in the context of Gilles Deleuze s and Felix Guattari s theory of minor literature Ahdaf Soueif Hisham Matar Karim Alrawi Youssef Rakha Yasmine El Rashidi Omar Rober Hamilton Saleem Haddad and Nada Awar Jarrar all focus on the Arab world in their work on the lives of ordinary and minority peoples and on the revolutions of their respective nations This volume shows how these contemporary Anglo Arab novelists exhibit linguistic experimentation akin to Deleuze s and Guattari s theory of deterritorialization but in a way that is unique to Anglo Arab writing The selected novelists repudiate the use of metamorphosis which is usually an essential part of the deterritorialization of a major language Instead their writings enact the minor practice of linguistic deterritorialization by using metaphor and by incorporating contemporary modes of protest like popular slogans tweets and chants These authors challenge the conventions of minor literature and by adopting this mode of deterritorialization foreground the experiences of officially silenced voices
