Making Worlds Claudia Breger, 2020-04-14 The twenty first century has witnessed a resurgence of economic inequality racial exclusion and political hatred causing questions of collective identity and belonging to assume new urgency In Making Worlds Claudia Breger argues that contemporary European cinema provides ways of thinking about and feeling collectivity that can challenge these political trends Breger offers nuanced readings of major contemporary films such as Michael Haneke's The White Ribbon Alejandro González Iñárritu's Biutiful Fatih Akın's The Edge of Heaven Asghar Farhadi's A Separation and Aki Kaurismäki's refugee trilogy as well as works by Jean-Luc Godard and Rainer Werner Fassbinder Through a new model of cinematic worldmaking Breger examines the ways in which these works produce unexpected and destabilizing affects that invite viewers to imagine new connections among individuals or groups These films and their depictions of refugees immigrants and communities do not simply counter dominant political imaginaries of hate and fear with calls for empathy or solidarity Instead they produce layered sensibilities that offer the potential for greater openness to others present past and future claims Drawing on the work of Latour Deleuze and Rancière Breger engages questions of genre and realism along with the legacies of cinematic modernism Offering a rich account of contemporary film Making Worlds theorizes the cinematic creation of imaginative spaces in order to find new ways of responding to political hatred

Jigsaw Sybille Bedford, 2018-06-05 Shortlisted for the Booker Prize Bedford's autobiographical novel paints a vivid picture of life in 1920s Europe between the wars Sybille Bedford placed the ambiguous and inescapable stuff of her own life at the center of her fiction and in Jigsaw her fourth and final novel which was shortlisted for the 1989 Booker Prize she did it with particular artistry What I had in mind she was later to say was to build a novel out of the events and people who had made up and marked my early youth Truth here was an artistic not moral requirement It involved writing about myself my feelings my actions And so she assembled the puzzle pieces of her singular past into a picture of her unsentimental education We learn of a childhood spent alone with her father a stranded man of the world living a life of ungentle poverty in quite grand surroundings a chateau that is deep in the German countryside with wine but little else for him and his young daughter to hold body and soul together We learn of her return to Italy and her mother the one character I wished to keep minor and knew all along that it could not be done and the dark secret consuming her mother's life Finally she tells us how she lived with and learned from Aldous and Maria Huxley on the French Riviera developing the sense of purpose and determination that made her the great writer she would become Jigsaw Sybille Bedford, 2012 Everafter Dave Justus, Lilah Sturges, 2017 Spinning off from Bill Willingham's FABLES saga Peter Piper Bo Peep Connor Wolf As members of the elite network of agents known as the Shadow Players these three legendary Fables share a single purpose to protect the newly merged magical and mundane worlds from all threats But what happens when the greatest threat of all comes from within Bobby Speckland may look like any other Texas high school student but as the first Mundy to gain magical abilities in the post Everafter world he's also a sorcerer of incredible power So when a trio of bullied teens take over their school using stolen Fable weapons and unleash the Lone Star State's supernatural shock troops to consolidate their coup d'etat it's up to Bobby to find a way to bring them down by any means necessary For the three veteran agents and their volatile young ally the deadliest class of all time is now in session Will it prove to be a learning experience Or will the Fable and Mundy worlds both discover that school is out forever Education, 1923 The History of Education Ellwood Patterson Cubberley, 1920 Little Horrors T.S. Kord, 2016-08-08 Zombies werewolves and chainsaw wielding maniacs are tried and true staples of horror films But none can match the visceral dread evoked by a child with an innocent face and a diabolical stare Cinema's evil children attack our cherished ideas of innocence and our innocent bystander status as the audience A good horror film is a scary ride a devil child movie is a guilt trip This book examines 24 international films with discussions of another 100 that in effect indict viewers for crimes of child abuse and abandonment greed social and ecological negligence and political and war crimes and for persistent denial of responsibility for them all For 75 years evil children have ritually rebuked audiences and in playing on our guilt established a horror subgenre that might be described as a blood spattered rampage on an ethical mission Manual Training and Vocational Education Charles Alpheus Bennett, William Thomas Bawden, 1905 School and Home Education, 1893 Readings in the History of Education Ellwood Patterson Cubberley, 1920 Some Aspects of Art Education National Society of Art Masters, 1921 Primary Education, 1896 Report of the Education Department University of the State of New York, 1921 Annual
