Unthought In Contemporary Islamic Thought:

The Unthought in Contemporary Islamic Thought Mohammed Arkoun,2002 Mohammed Arkoun is one of the Muslim world's foremost thinkers His efforts to liberate Islamic history from dogmatic constructs have led him to a radical review of traditional history Drawing on a combination of pertinent disciplines history sociology psychology and anthropology his approach subjects every system of belief and non belief every tradition of exegesis theology and jurisprudence to a critique aimed at liberating reason from the grip of dogmatic postulates By treating Islam as a religion as well as a time honoured tradition of thought Arkoun's work aims at overcoming the limitations of descriptive narrative and chronological modes in history by recommending that the entire development of Islamic thought from Quranic to present day fundamentalist discourses be subjected to a critical analysis guided by these categories The expected outcome of such a strategy is an emancipated political reason working hand in hand with a truly creative imagination for a radical re construction of mind and society in the contemporary Muslim world

Contemporary Arab Thought Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab,2025-04-29 In the last third of the twentieth century the Arab intellectual and political scene polarized between totalizing doctrines nationalist Marxist and religious and radical critique Arab thinkers were reacting to the disenchanting experience of postindependence and a widespread sense of malaise as well as to authoritarianism intolerance injustice failed development and successive defeats by Israel The foundational account of these responses Contemporary Arab Thought illuminates the relationship between cultural and political critique in the work of major Arab thinkers Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab also connects Arab debates to the postcolonial issues of Latin America and Africa revealing the shared struggles of different regions Since its first publication in 2009 this book has stood as the foremost account of contemporary Arab debates on culture philosophy modernity tradition identity and liberation It is widely used in Middle Eastern studies courses and it has become a classic in the field of Arab intellectual history Contemporary Arab Thought now features an extensive new introduction that reconsiders post 1967 Arab intellectual history in light of the 2011 uprisings and the upheavals that have occurred over the intervening years Kassab critically reflects on the book's arguments and the responses it has provoked and she surveys the new preoccupations that have emerged in Arab debates since 2011 As crises again overtake the Middle East this landmark work continues to offer indispensable insight into the richness of contemporary Arab thought

Islamic Ethos and the Specter of Modernity Farzin Vahdat,2015-06-15 Drawing on the work of Hegel this book proposes a framework for understanding modernity in the Muslim world and analyzes the discourse of prominent Muslim thinkers and political leaders Chapter by chapter the book undertakes a close textual analysis of the works of Mohammad Iqbal Abul Ala Maududi Sayyid Qutb Fatima Mernissi Mehdi Haeri Yazdi Mohammad Mojtahed Shabestari Mohammad Khatami Seyyed Hussein Nasr and Mohamad Arkoun drawing conclusions about contemporary Islamic thought with reference to some of the most significant markers of modernity

Muslims in Modern Turkey Sena Karasipahi,2008-12-18 Modern Turkey is the site of a powerful

Islamic revival with a strong intellectual elite dedicated to the overthrow of secular modernism Why have modern Muslim intellectuals turned against the ideals of Kemalism on which the modern Turkish nation state is founded What does this reveal about the future of Turkey And how are Islamic intellectuals in Turkey affected by developments in the Middle East Muslims in Modern Turkey is the first book to analyse this phenomenon tracing the evolution of Muslim intellectual thought from the 1980s to the present day It focuses on six leading Muslim thinkers Ali Bula Rasim zden ren smet zel lhan Kutluer Ersin Nazif G rdo an and Abdurrahman Dilipak who belong to a single school and share a novel understanding of Islam They act as public intellectuals who aim to reform and enlighten society by educating them and raising their awareness of Islamic values arguing not for the compatibility of Islam and European values but the fundamental superiority of Islam over secular democracy Sena Karasipahi places the Turkish experience in its broader international context and shows how Turkish Islamic intellectuals are affected by the earlier Muslim intellectuals and revivalists in the Arab world and in Turkey This important study makes connections with the Islamic revival process throughout the contemporary Middle East as well as with comparable movements in Turkey s own past making this a crucial contribution to an understanding of contemporary Islamic political thinking

Musk, 2008 A certainty trap has sprung up within both Islam and Christianity resulting in a world struggling with the fallout from extremist and violent interpretations of what the word of God might mean In The Certainty Trap Musk looks at the phenomenon of fundamentalism in Christianity and its contributions toward the messy state of international affairs in which many especially Muslims find themselves today By scrutinizing sacred book interpretation in both the Islamic and Christian heritages The Certainty Trap challenges contemporary religious fundamentalism and is a timely contribution to Muslim Christian relations

The Muslim World Book Review, 2006 Rethinking the Qur'ân Naṣr Ḥāmid Abū Zayd, 2004 Since the reign of the Abassid Caliph at Baghdad al Mutawakil 847 861 more than eleven centuries ago the discussion about the nature of the Qur an has been blocked in favour of the Orthodox view that it is the exclusive verbatim Word of God The human dimension which includes the language as well as the recipient is almost absent This book aims to reopen the debate by rereading the classical material and addressing the present situation of Muslims in the context of the challenges of modernity The basic question is whether or not Muslims can modernize their societies without disregarding their own belief The implicit answer is that this is indeed possible once the human dimension of the Qur an is regarded So far Muslims have only been able to rethink Tradition while the question of the Qur an is untouched Those who dared to open the question were condemned as heretics and some of them were executed Nasr Abu Zayd Ibn Rushd Professor at the University for Humanistics Netherlands delves into the academic adventure of reopening the debate that has been blocked for so long

 Natasha Bakht, 2008 A variety of Canadian voices come together here to explore some of the vital issues facing Muslims in Canada Who indeed is a Canadian Muslim This is only one of the fundamental questions addressed in this volume The authors are from diverse ethnic backgrounds hail from coast to coast and profess varying degrees of practice and belief In their thoughtful contributions they explore matters of faith identity sectarianism human rights and women s rights Specifically the essays collected here question the dubious role of the government of Canada under pressure from the war on terror and its agencies regarding scientific research and the Muslim traditions of knowledge and intellectual pursuits give examples of tolerant Muslim upbringing and reinforcement of positive identities point out the duplicitous practices of certain Canadian media in portraying Muslims look at the issues of women voting or participating in sports while veiled and the implications of Shariah law as a means of arbitration With contributions by Anar Ali Arif Babul Anver M Emon Karim H Karim

Modernities Aryn Sajoo, 2008-06-30 This book is about Muslim encounters with the modern how Islam and those in its orbit have shaped and been shaped by histories that are overlapping and distinctive Identity and citizenship piety and protest music and modes of dress are explored as expressions that bear on the making and remaking of modern public spheres Muslim as well as non Muslim scholars show in these pages that tradition and religiosity alike are active players in the making of the modern A vital theme is the role of the ethical imagination in expressions of the civil fed by the diversity of religious and cultural narratives as sources of the self This can be seen in struggles for civil society and democratic citizenship in the grappling with new technologies and in the challenges of political violence Since the events of September 11 2001 a failure to grips with plural modernities has spurred claims about a clash of civilizations Fresh perspectives are offered here on what it is to be Muslim and modern mindful of the rich narratives that inform both identities BOOK
